KYRIE ELEISON G. J. Elvey.

GLORIA TIBI Geo. F. Bishop.

OFFERINGS FOR THE POOR.

ANTHEM—"One Sweetly Solemn Thought"

One sweetly solemn thought
Comes to me o'er and o'er;
I am nearer my home to-day
Than I ever have been before;

Nearer the great white throne,
Nearer the crystal sea,
Nearer my Father's house,
Where the "many mansions" be;

Nearer the bound of life,
Where we lay our burdens down;
Nearer leaving the cross,
Nearer gaining the crown;

But lying darkly between,
Winding down through the night,
Is the deep and unknown stream
To be crossed ere we reach the light.

Jesus, perfect my trust,
Strengthen the hand of my faith:
Let me feel Thee near when I stand
On the edge of the shore of death;

Feel Thee near when my feet
Are slipping over the brink;
For it may be I'm nearer home,
Nearer now than I think.

HOLY COMMUNION.

ANTHEM—"The Radiant Morn Hath Passed Away"

Rev. H. H. Woodward.

The radiant morn hath passed away
And spent too soon her golden store ;
The shadows of departing day
Creep on once more.

Our life is but a fading dawn,
Its glorious noon, how quickly past !
Lead us, O Christ, when all is gone,
Safe home at last.

Where saints are clothed in spotless white,
And evening shadows never fall,
Where Thou, Eternal Light of Light,
Art Lord of all.

OFFERINGS FOR THE PARISH.

ANTHEM (1)—"O How Amiable" J. Barnby.

O how amiable are Thy dwellings; Thou Lord of hosts! My soul hath a desire and a longing to enter into the courts of the house of the Lord: my heart and my flesh rejoice in the Lord, in the living God. Blessed are they that dwell in Thy house: they will be always praising Thee.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

ANTHEM (2)—"O pray for the peace of Jerusalem" . James C. Knox.

I was glad when they said unto me; We will go into the house of the Lord.

Our feet shall stand in thy gates: O Jerusalem.

O pray for the peace of Jerusalem: they shall prosper that love thee.

Peace be within thy walls; and plenteousness within thy palaces.

For my brethren and companion's sake: I will wish thee prosperity.

Yea, because of the house of the Lord our God: I will seek to do thee good.

Glorious things of thee are spoken,

Zion city of our God;

He Whose word cannot be broken,

Formed thee for His own abode:

On the Rock of Ages founded,

Who can shake thy sure repose?

With salvation's walls surrounded,

Thou may'st smile at all thy foes.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

The Offering this morning will be for the Episcopal and Convention Fund. The amount asked for from this Parish is $164.06. We must not forget that this is an assessment, and therefore it is the duty of every one to give of their ability.

OFFERING FOR THE PARISH.

ANTHEM—"O pray for the peace of Jerusalem" . . . James C. Knox.

I was glad when they said unto me; We will go into the house of the Lord,
Our feet shall stand in thy gates: O Jerusalem.
O pray for the peace of Jerusalem: they shall prosper that love thee.
Peace be within thy walls; and plenteousness within thy palaces.
For my brethren and companion's sake: I will wish thee prosperity.
Yea, because of the house of the Lord our God: I will seek to do thee good.

Glorious things of thee are spoken,
Zion city of our God;
He Whose word cannot be broken,
Formed thee for His own abode:
On the Rock of Ages founded,
Who can shake thy sure repose?
With salvation's walls surrounded,
Thou may'st smile at all thy foes.

ANTHEM—"Awake up, my Glory" J. Barnby.

Awake up, my glory, awake, lute and harp,
I myself will awake right early,
This is the day which the Lord hath made.
We will rejoice and be glad in it.
For now is Christ risen from the dead,
And become the first-fruits of them that slept.
Thanks be to God which giveth us the victory,
Through our Lord Jesus Christ.
All praise be thine, O risen Lord,
From death to endless life restored,
All praise to God the Father be,
And Holy Ghost, eternally. Amen.

ANTHEM—"Come let us keep our harvest feast"

"And thou shalt observe the feast of weeks, even of the first fruits of wheat harvest. After thou hast gathered in from thy threshing floor, and thou shalt rejoice in thy feast."

CHORUS.

Come, let us keep our harvest feast
With thanksgiving of the best
As our first fruits unto God.
That which in the field we'd sown
In the spring time, when the sod
Our ploughs upturned, has waxed and grown
In the sunshine and the rain,
From tender blade to ripened grain;
And we have reaped, and we have stored
So let us give unto the Lord,
That all our labors so hath blessed,
A thankful offering of the best.

Addresses by the Assistant Minister, and the Superintendent of the Sunday School.

OFFERINGS FOR THE PARISH.

ANTHEM—"Send out Thy Light," Psalm XLIII, 20 . C. Gounod.

Send out Thy Light and Thy truth; let them lead me and let them bring me to Thy holy hill. Why, O soul, art thou sorrowful, why cast down within me? Still trust the loving kindness of the God of thy strength, and my tongue yet shall praise Him.

ANTHEM—"Incline Thine ear" Himmel.

Incline Thine ear to me, O Lord, make haste to deliver me; O save me for Thy mercy's sake.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Offertory on Sunday morning, December 15th, is the annual one for the Endowment Fund of the Parish, and the Sunday School is also asked to contribute to the same Fund on Sunday afternoon, December 8th. Last year the Sunday School contributed $108.54, and the congregation $384.70. It does not seem necessary again to speak of the importance of this matter to our Parish. As the Fund now stands, $11,000 are invested, and there is a cash balance of $563.98 on hand. Although the amount aimed to be raised when the Fund was started, viz., $10,000, has been more than raised, no portion of the interest can be used unless special needs arise which cannot be met in any other way, as has been previously stated.

In this connection members of the congregation, making their wills, and who have the ability, are earnestly requested to consider the matter conscientiously.

On Sunday evening next, December 15th, the second in the course of Sermons before the Parish Chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew will be preached by the Rev. W. W. Kirkby, D.D., Rector of Christ Church, Rye, N. Y.

CHURCH OF THE HOLY APOSTLES

THIRD SUNDAY IN ADVENT,

DECEMBER 15, 1895.

THE COLLECTS.

O Lord Jesus Christ, who at thy first coming didst send thy messenger to prepare thy way before thee; Grant that the ministers and stewards of thy mysteries may likewise so prepare and make ready thy way, by turning the hearts of the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, that at thy second coming to judge the world we may be found an acceptable people in thy sight, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Spirit ever, one God, world without end. Amen.

Almighty God, give us grace that we may cast away the works of darkness, and put upon us the armour of light, now in the time of this mortal life, in which thy Son Jesus Christ came to visit us in great humility; that in the last day, when he shall come again in his glorious majesty to judge both the quick and the dead, we may rise to the life immortal, through him who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, now and ever. Amen.

Though poor be the chamber, come here, come and adore ;
Lo ! the Lord of heaven hath to mortals given,
Life for evermore.

Wind to the cedars proclaim the story.
Waves of the sea, the tidings bear afar.
The night is gone ; behold in all its glory,
All broad and bright, the eternal morning star.

Shepherds, who folded your flocks beside you,
Tell what was told by angel voices near ;
To you this day is born He who will guide you
Thro' paths of peace to living waters clear.

OFFERINGS FOR THE PARISH.

ANTHEM, "O pray for peace, etc." James C. Knox.

I was glad when they said unto me, We will go into the house of the Lord.
Our feet shall stand in thy gates, O Jerusalem.

O pray for the peace of Jerusalem; they shall prosper that love thee.

Peace be within thy walls; and plenteousness within thy palaces.

For my brethren and companion's sake, I will wish thee prosperity.

Yea, because of the house of the Lord our God, I will seek to do thee good.

Glorious things of thee are spoken,
Zion, city of our God:

He Whose word cannot be broken,

Formed thee for His own abode;

On the Rock of Ages founded,

Who can shake thy sure repose?

With salvation's walls surrounded,

Thou mayst smile at all thy foes.

ANNUAL OFFERING FOR DOMESTIC AND FOREIGN MISSIONS.

ANTHEM—"Nazareth" Charles Gounod.

Though poor be the chamber, come here, come and adore;
Lo! the Lord of heaven hath to mortals given,
Life for evermore.

Shepherds, who folded your flocks beside you,
Tell what was told by angel voices near;
To you this day is born He who will guide you
Thro' paths of peace to living waters clear.

Wind to the cedars proclaim the story,
Waves of the sea, the tidings bear afar,
The night is gone; behold in all its glory,
All broad and bright, the eternal morning star.

ANTHEM, "The earth is the Lord's" Mason.

The earth is the Lord's and the fulness thereof; the world and they that dwell therein.

For He hath founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods

Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord? And who shall stand in His holy place?

He that hath clean hands and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully

He shall receive the blessing from the Lord, and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

This is the generation of them that seek Him, that seek Thy face, O God of Jacob.

Lift up your heads O ye gates, and be ye lifted up, ye everlasting doors, and the King of glory shall come in.

Who is this King of glory? The Lord, strong and mighty; the Lord, mighty in battle.

Lift up your heads, O ye gates, even lift them up, ye everlasting doors, and the King of glory shall come in.

Who is this King of glory? The Lord of hosts, He is the King of glory.

SEPTUAGESIMA SUNDAY—THE PRESENTATION

OF CHRIST IN THE TEMPLE.

FEBRUARY 2, 1896.

THE COLLECTS.

O Lord, we beseech thee favourably to hear the prayers of thy people ; that we, who are justly punished for our offences, may be mercifully delivered by thy goodness, for the glory of thy Name ; through Jesus Christ our Saviour, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost ever, one God, world without end. Amen.

Almighty and everliving God, we humbly beseech thy Majesty, that, as thy only-begotten Son was this day presented in the temple in substance of our flesh, so we may be presented unto thee with pure and clean hearts, by the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Joy of heaven to earth come down,
Fix in us Thy humble dwelling.
All Thy faithful mercies crown.
Jesu ! Thou art all compassion,
Pure, unbounded love Thou art,
Visit us with Thy salvation,
Enter ev'ry trembling heart.

Come, Almighty, to deliver ;
Let us all Thy grace receive,
Hasten to return and never,
Nevermore Thy temple leave.
Thee we would be always blessing,
Serve Thee as Thy hosts above,
Pray, and praise Thee without ceasing,
Glory in Thy perfect Love.

SECOND SUNDAY IN LENT,

MARCH 1, 1896.

THE COLLECTS.

Almighty God, who seest that we have no power of ourselves to help ourselves; Keep us both outwardly in our bodies, and inwardly in our souls; that we may be defended from all adversities which may happen to the body, and from all evil thoughts which may assault and hurt the soul; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty and everlasting God, who hatest nothing that thou hast made, and dost forgive the sins of all those who are penitent; Create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that we, worthily lamenting our sins and acknowledging our wretchedness, may obtain of thee, the God of all mercy, perfect remission and forgiveness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

10.30 A.M. Holy Communion. Sermon by the Rector, Rev. Henry S. Getz.

HYMNS 3, 674, 229.

OFFERINGS FOR THE PARISH.

ANTHEM—"One Sweetly Solemn Thought" —

One sweetly solemn thought
Comes to me o'er and o'er;
I am nearer my home to-day
Than I ever have been before;

But lying darkly between,
Winding down through the night,
Is the deep and unknown stream
To be crossed ere we reach the light.

Nearer the great white throne.
Nearer the crystal sea,
Nearer my Father's house,
Where the "many mansions" be.

Jesus, perfect my trust,
Strengthen the hand of my faith:
Let me feel Thee near when I stand
On the edge of the shore of death;

Nearer the bound of life,
Where we lay our burdens down;
Nearer leaving the cross,
Nearer gaining the crown;

Feel Thee near when my feet
Are slipping over the brink;
For it may be I'm nearer home,
Nearer now than I think.

OFFERINGS FOR THE POOR.

ANTHEM—"Palm Branches" Faure

O'er all the way green palms and blossoms gay
Are strewn this day in festal preparation,
Where Jesus comes to wipe our tears away.
E'en now the throng to welcome Him prepare,
Join all to sing His name declare,
Let every voice respond with acclamation.

CHORUS—Hosanna, Praise be the Lord!
Bless Him who cometh to bring us salvation.

His word goes forth, and people by its might,
Once more regain freedom from degradation,
Humanity doth give to each his right,
While those in darkness find restored the light.
Join all and sing, etc.

Sing and rejoice, O blest Jerusalem,
Of all thy sons sing the emancipation,
Through boundless love the Christ of Bethlehem,
Brings faith and hope to thee for evermore.
Join all and sing, etc.

OFFERINGS FOR THE PARISH.

ANTHEM—"Calvary" Paul Rodney

The pilgrims through thro' the city gates
While the night is falling fast;
They go to watch on Calvary's hill,
Ere the twilight hours are past:
Though dark the way, with eyes of faith
They gaze on His Cross above,
And, lo! from each heart the shadows depart,
As they list to His words of love.

Rest, rest to the weary,
Peace, peace to the soul,
Though life may be dreary,
Earth is not thy goal.
O lay down thy burden,
O come unto me,
I will not forsake thee
Though all else should flee.

Far, far away o'er the dream of years
They hear the Voice of the King,
Where, O Grave, where is thy victory,
And where, O Death, is thy sting?
Captive He leads them for evermore,
While weary pilgrims rejoice,
For looking on high to the Cross He bore,
The faithful shall hear His voice.
Rest, rest to the weary, etc.

ANTHEM—"Christ our Passover" G. W. Marston

Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us; therefore let us keep the feast.

Not with the old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. 1 Cor. 5:7.

Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over Him.

For in that He died, He died unto sin once; but in that He liveth He liveth unto God.

Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin; but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Rom. 6:9.

Christ is risen from the dead: and become the first-fruits of them that slept.

For since by man came death: by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

For as in Adam all die: even so in Christ shall all be made alive. 1 Cor. 15:20.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

ANTHEM—"O pray for peace, etc." James C. Knox

I was glad when they said unto me, We will go into the house of the Lord.
Our feet shall stand in thy gates, O Jerusalem.
O pray for the peace of Jerusalem; they shall prosper that love thee.
Peace be within thy walls; and plenteousness within thy palaces.
For my brethren and companion's sake, I will wish thee prosperity.
Yea, because of the house of the Lord our God, I will seek to do thee good.

Glorious things of thee are spoken,
Zion, city of our God:
He Whose word cannot be broken,
Formed thee for His own abode;
On the Rock of Ages founded,
Who can shake Thy sure repose?
With salvation's walls surrounded,
Thou mayst smile at all thy foes.

ANTHEM—"God has appointed a day" Berthold Tours

God hath appointed a day, in the which He will judge the world in righteousness, by that man whom He hath ordained ; Whereof He hath given assurance unto all men, in that He hath raised Him from the dead. Acts 17 : 31.

Mercy and truth are met together,
Righteousness and peace have
Kissed each other. Ps. 85 : 10.

Thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory, through our Lord Jesus Christ.
1 Cor. 15 : 57.

OFFERINGS FOR THE PARISH.

ANTHEM—"Ye shall go out with Joy" Barnby

*Ye shall go out with joy and be led forth with peace. The mountains and hills shall break forth before you into singing; all the trees of the fields shall clap their hands.

Lift up your eyes, and look upon the fields, for they are white already to harvest. For the harvest is ripe and the presses are filled.

O blessed are ye that sow beside all waters. If ye be willing and obedient ye shall eat the good of the land. For I am the Lord thy God.

GLORIA PATRI W. Russell

BONUM—EST A. Bennell

BENEDIC W. Jacobs

ANTHEM—"Christ our Passover" G. W. Marston.

Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us; therefore let us keep the feast.

Not with the old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. 1 Cor. 5:7.

Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over Him.

For in that He died, He died unto sin once: but in that He liveth, he liveth unto God. Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin: but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Rom. 6:9

Christ is risen from the dead: and become the first-fruits of them that slept.

For since by man came death: by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

For as in Adam all die: even so in Christ shall all be made alive. 1 Cor. 15:20.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

ANTHEM—"Come, Holy Spirit" Warren

Come, Holy Spirit, Heavenly Dove,
With all Thy quickening powers;
Kindle a flame of sacred love
In these cold hearts of ours.

See how we grovel here below,
Fond of these earthly toys;
Our souls, how heavily they go
To reach eternal joys.

In vain we tune our lifeless songs,
In vain we strive to rise,
Hosannas languish on our tongues
And our devotion dies.

Come, Holy Spirit, Heavenly Dove,
With all Thy quickening powers;
Come, shed abroad a Saviour's love,
And that shall kindle ours.

FOURTH SUNDAY IN ADVENT, DECEMBER 20, 1896.

THE COLLECTS.

ALMIGHTY GOD, give us grace that we may cast away the works of darkness, and put upon us the armour of light, now in the time of this mortal life, in which thy Son Jesus Christ came to visit us in great humility; that in the last day, when he shall come again in his glorious majesty to judge both the quick and the dead, we may rise to the life immortal, through him who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, now and ever. Amen.

O LORD raise up, we pray thee, thy power, and come among us, and with great might succour us; that whereas, through our sins and wickedness, we are sore let and hindered in running the race that is set before us, thy bountiful grace and mercy may speedily help and deliver us; through the satisfaction of thy Son our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

OFFERINGS FOR THE PARISH.

ANTHEM—"Hark! hark, my soul!" H. R. Shelley.

[Duett for Soprano and Alto.]

Hark! hark, my soul! Angelic songs are swelling
O'er earth's green fields, and ocean's wave-beat shore:
How sweet the truth those blessed strains are telling
Of that new life when sin shall be no more!
Angels of Jesus, angels of light,
Singing to welcome the pilgrims of the night.

Onward we go, for still we hear them singing,
"Come, weary souls, for Jesus bids you come;"
And, through the dark its echoes sweetly ringing,
The music of the Gospel leads us home.

Rest comes at length, though life be long and dreary,
The day must dawn, and darkness night be past:
All journeys end in welcome to the weary,
And heaven, the heart's true home, will come at last.

Angels, sing on! your faithful watches keeping;
Sing us sweet fragments of the songs above;
Till morning's joy shall end the night of weeping,
And life's long shadows break in cloudless love.

Sing O Heavens, and be joyful O earth, and break forth into singing O mountains,
For unto us is born this day, in the city of David, a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.
Hosanna to the Son of David!

Blessed is He that cometh in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the Highest. To God on high be glory, and peace on earth to men.

Oh come, all ye faithful, joyful and triumphant;
Oh come ye, oh come ye to Bethlehem;
Come and behold Him born the King of angels;
Oh come, let us adore Him,
Oh come, let us adore Him,
Oh come, let us adore Him, Christ the Lord. Amen.

O holy night, the stars are brightly shining,
It is the night of our dearest Saviour's birth;
Long lay the world in sin and sorrow pining,
Till He appeared, and the soul felt its worth;
A thrill of hope, the weary world rejoices,
For yonder breaks a new and glorious morn.

CHORUS—

Fall on your knees, oh hear the angel voices,
O night divine, when Christ was born.

SOLO—

Led by the light of stars serenely beaming,
With glowing hearts by His cradle we stand,
So led by light of star, so sweetly gleaming,
Here came the wise men from the Orient land;
The King of Kings lay thus in lowly manger,
In all our trials born to be our friend.

CHORUS—

Fall on your knees, oh hear the angel voices,
O night divine, when Christ was born.

THE SECOND SUNDAY IN LENT, MARCH 14, 1897.

THE COLLECTS.

ALMIGHTY GOD, who seest that we have no power of ourselves to help ourselves; Keep us both outwardly in our bodies, and inwardly in our souls; that we may be defended from all adversities which may happen to the body, and from all evil thoughts which may assault and hurt the soul; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE COLLECT FOR ASH-WEDNESDAY.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who hatest nothing that Thou hast made, and dost forgive the sins of all those who are penitent; Create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that we worthily lamenting our sins, and acknowledging our wretchedness, may obtain of Thee, the God of all mercy, perfect remission and forgiveness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ANTHEM—"Jesu, Saviour, I am Thine." Bruce Steane.

Jesu, Saviour, I am Thine. Thou hast bid me call Thee mine, All things else I count but loss, Find my Glory in the Cross.

Jesu, Saviour, I am Thine, Thou hast bid me call Thee mine, In this only plea confide, That for enemies Thou hast died; Jesu, Saviour, I am Thine.

Come unto Me, ye weary,
And I will give you rest.
Oh! blessed voice of Jesus,
Which comes to hearts oppressed!
It tells of benediction,
Of pardon, grace, and peace,
Of joy that hath no ending,
Of love that cannot cease.

OFFERINGS FOR THE PARISH.

ANTHEM—"Rock of ages" D. Buck.

Rock of ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in Thee;
Let the water and the blood,
From Thy side, a healing flood,
Be of sin the double cure,
Save from wrath and make me pure.

Should my tears forever flow,
Should my zeal no languor know,
This for sin could not atone,
Thou must save and Thou alone.

In my hand no price I bring,
Simply to Thy cross I cling,
While I draw this fleeting breath,
When mine eyelids close in death,
When I rise to worlds unknown,
And behold Thee on Thy throne,
Rock of ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in Thee.

RECESSIONAL HYMN 398.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

ANTHEM—"One sweetly solemn thought" R. S. Ambrose.

One sweetly solemn thought

Comes to me o'er and o'er;

I am nearer my home to-day

Than I have ever been before.

But lying darkly between,

Winding down through the night,

Is the deep and unknown stream

To be crossed ere we reach the light.

Nearer the great white throne,

Nearer the crystal sea,

Nearer my father's house,

Where the "many mansions" be.

Jesus, perfect my trust,

Strengthen the hand of my faith;

Let me feel Thee near when I stand

On the edge of the shore of death;

Nearer the bound of life,

Where we lay our burdens down;

Nearer leaving the cross,

Nearer gaining the crown.

Feel Thee near when my feet

Are slipping over the brink;

For it may be I'm nearer home,

Nearer now than I think.

I heard the voice of Jesus say,
Come unto me and rest.
Lay down, thou weary one,
Lay down thy head upon my breast.
I came to Jesus as I was,
All weary, worn and sad,
I found in Him a resting-place,
And He has made me glad.

I heard the voice of Jesus say,
I am this world's true light,
Look unto Me, thy morn shall rise
And all thy day be bright.
I looked to Jesus, and I found
In Him my star and sun,
And in that light of life I'll walk,
Till travelling days are done.

ANTHEM—"Hark! hark, my soul!" H. R. Shelley.

Hark! hark, my soul! Angelic songs are swelling
O'er earth's green fields, and ocean's wave-beat shore:
How sweet the truth those blessed strains are telling
Of that new life when sin shall be no more!
Angels of Jesus, angels of light,
Singing to welcome the pilgrims of the night.

Onward we go, for still we hear them singing,
"Come, weary souls, for Jesus bids you come;"
And, through the dark its echoes sweetly ringing,
The music of the Gospel leads us home.

Rest comes at length, though life be long and dreary,
The day must dawn, and darksome night be past:
All journeys end in welcome to the weary,
And heaven, the heart's true home, will come at last.

Angels, sing on! your faithful watches keeping;
Sing us sweet fragments of the songs above;
Till morning's joy shall end the night of weeping,
And life's long shadows break in cloudless love.

ANTHEM—"The king of love" H. R. Shelley.

The King of Love my shepherd is, Whose goodness faileth never; I nothing lack if I am His, And He is mine forever.	In death's dark vale I fear no ill, With Thee, dear Lord, beside me; Thy rod and staff my comfort still, Thy cross before to guide me.
---	---

Where streams of living waters flow My ransomed soul He leadeth, And where the verdant pastures grow, With food celestial feedeth.	Thou spread'st a table in my sight, Thy unction grace bestoweth; And O what transport of delight From Thy pure chalice floweth!
---	--

Perverse and foolish oft I strayed, But yet in love He sought me, And on His shoulder gently laid, And home rejoicing brought me.	And so through all the length of days, Thy goodness faileth never; Good Shepherd, may I sing Thy praise Within Thy house forever. Amen.

As it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre. And behold there was a great earthquake; for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow. And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men.

And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye; for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified. He is not here (remember how He spake unto you when He was yet in Galilee.) He is risen,

Alleluia! Alleluia! Hearts and voices heav'nward raise;
Sing to God a hymn of gladness,
Sing to God a hymn of praise;
He, who on the cross a victim for the world's salvation bled,
Jesus Christ, the King of glory, now is risen from the dead.

Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord ? And who shall stand in His holy place ?

He that hath clean hands and a pure heart ; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully.

He shall receive the blessing from the Lord, and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

This is the generation of them that seek Him, that seek Thy face, O God of Jacob.

Lift up your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lifted up, ye everlasting doors, and the King of glory shall come in.

Who is this King of glory ? The Lord, strong and mighty ; the Lord, mighty in battle.

Lift up your heads, O ye gates, even lift them up, ye everlasting doors, and the King of glory shall come in.

Who is this King of glory ? The Lord of hosts, He is the King of glory.

OFFERINGS FOR THE PARISH.

ANTHEM—"O pray for peace," etc. James C. Knox.
Psalm 122; Hymn 490: 1.

I was glad when they said unto me, We will go into the house of the Lord.
Our feet shall stand in thy gates, O Jerusalem.
O pray for the peace of Jerusalem; they shall prosper that love thee.
Peace be within thy walls; and plenteousness within thy palaces.
For my brethren and companions' sake, I will wish thee prosperity.
Yea, because of the house of the Lord our God, I will seek to do thee good.

Glorious things of thee are spoken,
Zion, city of our God:
He Whose word cannot be broken,
Formed thee for His own abode;
On the Rock of Ages founded,
Who can shake thy sure repose?
With salvation's walls surrounded,
Thou mayst smile at all thy foes.

KNEELING HYMN—Tarry with me, etc.

RECESSIONAL HYMN 671.

ANTHEM—"Hark! hark, my soul!" H. R. Shelley

Hark! hark, my soul!" Angelic songs are swelling
O'er earth's green fields, and ocean's wave beat shore:
How sweet the truth those blessed strains are telling
Of that new life when sin shall be no more!
Angels of Jesus, angels of light,
Singing to welcome the pilgrims of the night.

Onward we go, for still we hear them singing,
"Come, weary souls, for Jesus bids you come;"
And, through the dark its echoes sweetly ringing,
The music of the Gospel leads us home.

Rest comes at length, though life be long and dreary,
The day must dawn, and darksome night be past:
All journeys end in welcome to the weary,
And heaven, the heart's true home, will come at last.

Angels sing on! your faithful watches keeping;
Sing us sweet fragments of the songs above;
Till morning's joy shall end the night of weeping,
And life's long shadow's break in cloudless love.

ANTHEM—"The Lord is my Shepherd" Sir G. A. Macfarren
(Psalm 23)

The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures, He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil. For Thou art with me, Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Hymn 11

Sun of my soul, Thou Saviour dear,
It is not night if Thou be near;
O may no earth-born clouds arise
To hide Thee from Thy servant's eyes.

When the soft dews of kindly sleep
My weary eyelids gently steep,
Be my last thought, how sweet to rest
For ever on my Saviour's breast.

If some poor wandering child of Thine
Have spurned to-day the voice divine,
Now, Lord the gracious work begin,
Let him no more lie down in sin.

Watch be the sick; enrich the poor
With blessings from Thy boundless store;
Be every mourner's sleep to-night,
Like infant slumbers, pure and light.

Come near and bless us when we wake,
Ere through the world our way we take,
Till in the ocean of Thy love
We lose ourselves in heaven above.

KNEELING HYMN—"Lord keep us."

ANTHEM—"In humble faith and holy love." G. M. Garrett, Mus. Doc.
Words by the Very Rev. T. Rennell, D. D.

In humble faith and holy love,
The song of saints and martyrs sing;
That incense which to God above,
Blest angels and archangels bring.

In this sad vale of tears below,
Our anchor this of faith and love;
Till God His vision shall bestow,
In Christ's triumphant Church above.

Three mystic rays in glory shine,
From the tremendous Godhead's
Throne;
These in one source doth faith combine,
In three we praise one God alone.

To God our Father raise the voice,
Invisible, Immortal King!
In our Redeemer's strength rejoice;
And to the sacred Spirit sing. Amen

ANTHEM—"What are these that are arrayed in white robes," J. Stainer
(Revelation 7: 13-17.)

Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Hallelujah! What are these that are arrayed in white robes, and whence came they?

These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve Him day and night in His temple.

They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more, neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat. For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

ANTHEM—"The roseate hues of early dawn." Alonzo Stone, Mus. B.
Hymn 409.

The roseate hues of early dawn,
The brightness of the day,
The crimson of the sunset sky,
How fast they fade away!
Oh, for the pearly gates of heaven!
Oh, for the golden floor!
Oh, for the Sun of righteousness
That setteth nevermore!

The highest hopes we cherish here,
How fast they tire and faint!
How many a spot defiles the robe
That wraps an earthly saint!

Oh, for the heart that never sins!
Oh for a soul washed white!
Oh, for a voice to praise our King,
Nor weary day nor night!

Here faith is ours, and heavenly hope,
And grace to lead us higher;
But there are perfectness and peace,
Beyond our best desire.

Oh, by Thy love and anguish, Lord,
And by Thy life laid down,
Grant that we fall not from Thy grace
Nor cast away our crown.

Hymn 535

Now the day is over,
Night is drawing nigh;
Shadows of the evening
Steal across the sky.

Now the darkness gathers,
Stars begin to peep,
Birds and beasts and flowers
Soon will be asleep.

Jesus, give the weary
Calm and sweet repose;
With Thy tenderest blessing
May our eyelids close.

Grant to little children
Visions bright of Thee;
Guard the sailors tossing
On the deep, blue sea.

Comfort every sufferer
Watching late in pain;
Those who plan some evil
From their sins restrain.

Through the long night-watches
May Thine angels spread
Their white wings above me,
Watching round my bed.

When the morning wakens,
Then may I arise
Pure, and fresh, and sinless
In Thy holy eyes.

On Wednesday evening, the Regular Stated Meeting of the Parish Association will be held. The Chairmen of the various Committees are requested to have their reports ready for presentation. Light refreshments will be served at the close, as at other meetings of the Association.

The Second Special Music Service, in connection with the Harvest Home Exercises of the Sunday School and Bible Classes, will be given on next Sunday evening, November 24th, when the Cantata, entitled "A Harvest Song," for soprano solo and chorus, the music composed by C. Lee Williams, will be sung by the choir.

The "Andante" from the E Minor Violin Concerto, by Mendelssohn, will be played by Mrs. Elizabeth Bundy Culbert.

THIRD SUNDAY IN ADVENT, DECEMBER 15, 1901

THE COLLECTS.

O Lord, Jesus Christ, who at Thy first coming didst send Thy messenger to prepare Thy way before Thee; Grant that the ministers and stewards of Thy mysteries may likewise so prepare and make ready Thy way, by turning the hearts of the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, that at Thy second coming to judge the world we may be found an acceptable people in Thy sight, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Spirit ever, one God, world without end. Amen.

Almighty God, give us grace that we may cast away the works of darkness, and put upon us the armour of light, now in the time of this mortal life, in which Thy Son Jesus Christ came to visit us in great humility; that in the last day, when He shall come again in His glorious majesty to judge both the quick and the dead, we may rise to the life immortal, through Him who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost, now and ever. Amen.

ANTHEM—"There were Shepherds."

Christmas Anthem for Soprano Solo and Chorus. Composed by Herbert W. Waring.

There were shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flocks by night. And lo! the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them; and they were sore afraid. And the angel said unto them, Fear not, for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy. For unto you is born this day, in the city of David, a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. And the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem and see this thing which is come to pass.

Thou Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, art not the least among the princes of Judah, for out of thee shall come a governor that shall rule my people Israel. Glory to God. Hosanna in the Highest.

Hark! the herald angels sing
Glory to the new-born King;
Peace on earth, and mercy mild,
God and sinners reconciled;

Joyful, all ye nations, rise,
Join the triumph of the skies;
With the angelic host proclaim,
Christ is born in Bethlehem! Amen,

He is just and having salvation,
Hosanna to the Son of David,
Blessed is He that cometh in the Name of the Lord,
But who may abide the day of his coming?
And who shall stand when He appeareth?
Save, Lord, and hear us,
O King of Heaven, when we call upon Thee.

EVENING SERVICE

Evening Prayer, 7.45 P.M. Special Musical Service, for which a special order of Service is provided.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Treasurer of the Holy Apostles Tower Fund, Mr. Ewing L. Miller, can be seen in the Secretary's Room, immediately after the Sunday School Session.

The Offerings this afternoon in the Sunday School are for that worthy institution established by the late Bishop Stevens, the Sheltering Arms. Last year the offerings for this purpose were $100.01.

The Third Special Musical Service will be given this evening, The Choir will have the assistance of Mrs. Bessie McCloskey, Soprano, and Mr. Harry B. Gurney, Tenor. The following selections from Mendelssohn's "Hymn of Praise" will be sung.

"All ye that Cried unto the Lord," Chorus.

"I Waited for the Lord," Duet and Chorus.

"The Sorrows of Death," Solo.

"My Song shall be alway of Thy Mercy," Duet.

"Let all Men Praise the Lord," Chorale.

This service will be preceded by an organ recital by Miss May Porter, Mus. Bac., beginning at 7.30 o'clock.

The Committee on "Christmas Distribution" will meet in the Parish Building, on Tuesday, December 24th, at 10 o'clock, to receive any donations of poultry, vegetables, groceries, fruit, books, toys, and articles of clothing. Donations of money will be gladly received and may be handed to Mrs. George C. Thomas or Miss A. L. Warwick. The articles received will be distributed to those needing them—in the afternoon. Committee authorized by the Sisterhood of St. Mary of Bethany is composed of the following persons: Mrs. N. S. Thomas, Mrs. G. C. Thomas, Miss A. L. Warwick, Mrs. W. R. Chapman, Miss M. A. Warwick, Mrs. J. K. Howell, Mrs. H. S. Janney, Mrs. W. S. Neill, Mrs. J. L. Smith, Mrs. Geo. Wall, Mrs. J. W. Cobb, Miss M. G. Holson, Miss Mary L. Paul, Miss Elizabeth Forbes.

To-morrow evening, December 23d, at 7.30 o'clock, there will be a meeting of the Decoration Committee, to decorate the Church for Christmas Day. As the time is extremely short to accomplish this, the assistance of as many men as will help is desired, and it is hoped that a goodly number will respond.

There will be two Administrations of the Holy Communion Wednesday morning (Christmas Day) at 7.30 and 9.30 o'clock, when the Offerings will be for the Poor of the Parish. At the 10.30 Service, the Offerings will be, as usual, for the Christmas Fund. This Fund is for the relief of needy and infirm Clergymen of the Diocese, and the Widows and Orphans of Clergymen. Last year the amount contributed was $178.19.

Next Sunday, being the fifth Sunday in the month, the Holy Communion will be administered at 8 o'clock in the morning.

Hymn 398

Hark! hark, my soul! Angelic songs are swelling
O'er earth's green fields, and ocean's wave-beat shore:
How sweet the truth those blessed strains are telling
Of that new life when sin shall be no more!
Angels of Jesus, angels of light,
Singing to welcome the pilgrims of the night.

Onward we go, for still we hear them singing,
"Come, weary souls, for Jesus bids you come;"
And, through the dark its echoes sweetly ringing,
The music of the Gospel leads us home.

Rest comes at length, though life be long and dreary,
The day must dawn, and darksome night be past:
All journeys end in welcome to the weary,
And heaven, the heart's true home, will come at last.

Angels, sing on! your faithful watches keeping;
Sing us sweet fragments of the songs above;
Till morning's joy shall end the night of weeping,
And life's long shadows break in cloudless love.

KNEELING HYMN—"Lord keep us."

This evening the fourth Sermon in the course before the Parish Chapter, Brotherhood of St. Andrew will be preached by the Rev. Carl E. Grammar, D. D., Rector of Christ Church, Norfolk, Va.

On Wednesday evening, the Regular Stated Meeting of the Parish Association will be held. The Chairmen of the various Committees are requested to have their reports ready for presentation. Light refreshments will be served at the close, as at all other meetings of the Association.

Next Sunday, January 19, will be what is known as "Missionary Sunday." While this is in accordance with the action of the General Convention in 1898, in especially designating this day for that purpose in connection with the Sunday Schools of the Church, the matter of Missions will be brought before the Congregation as well, the following being the general arrangement:

At 9.00 A.M. there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion especially for Officers, Teachers and Scholars of the Sunday Schools of the Church and Memorial Chapel.

10.30 A.M. Missionary Sermon by the Rector.

3.30 P.M. Special Missionary Service following the form approved by the Bishop of the Diocese, when addresses will be delivered. This Service is preparatory to the Annual Meeting of the Teachers' Institute, which will be held in the Parish Building on Monday, January 20th. Due notice will be given regarding this meeting.

7.45 P.M. Special Musical Service, at which the remarks of the Rector will be directed toward the same object.

The offerings of the entire day at all Services, including the Sunday School, will be devoted to the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society without designation.

The first Entertainment of the Holy Apostles Chapter, No. 230, Junior Department, Brotherhood of St. Andrew, will be given in the new Cooper Hall and Gymnasium, Christian Street, below 23rd, on Thursday evening, January 16th, 1902, at 8 o'clock. Proceeds for the Lenten Offering. Cards of admission, fifteen cents.

On next Sunday evening, January 19th, the Fourth Special Musical Service will be given. The music will consist of Mendelssohn's "Hear my prayer," for Soprano Solo and Chorus, and the "Twenty-third Psalm," by F. Schubert, for female voices, with harp and organ accompaniment. There will be an Organ Recital at 7.30 by Miss May Porter, Mus. Bac.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Treasurer of the Holy Apostles Tower Fund, Mr. Ewing L. Miller, may be seen in the Secretary's Room, immediately after the Sunday School Session.

This being Missionary Sunday the offerings of the entire day at all Services, including the Sunday School, will be devoted to the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society without designation.

This offering in the Church has amounted in previous years as follows: 1890, $250.72; 1891, $339.10; 1892, $492.77; 1893, $730.87; 1894, $727.72; 1895, $755.93; 1896, 992.30; 1897, $1,027.54; 1898, $1,099.67; 1899, $1,058.99; 1900, $2,293.72; 1901, $2,592.80. The need of the Society is great, and as, in accordance with its Constitution, every baptized member of the Church is a member of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society, it may be clearly seen that it is the duty of everyone to contribute to the extent of their ability.

This evening the Fourth Special Musical Service will be given. The music will consist of Mendelssohn's "Hear my prayer," for Soprano Solo and Chorus, and the "Twenty-third Psalm," by F. Schubert, for female voices, with harp and organ accompaniment. There will be an Organ Recital at 7.30 by Miss May Porter, Mus. Bac.

The offerings of the Sunday School next Sunday afternoon, January 26th, will be towards the ordinary expenses of the School, and it is hoped that the response of the teachers and scholars will be liberal. It has always been considered desirable in connection with the work of the Sunday School of the Church of the Holy Apostles that the school should have the privilege of contributing towards its expenses, and it has recently been absolutely necessary to purchase a large number of Bibles to replace those that were worn out. In addition the officers and teachers who desire the "Church Standard" for next year are requested to place in the offering such amount as they may feel able to give for this purpose. The annual subscription to this paper is $1.50. The offerings will not be separated, but it is hoped that the total received will cover both these items.

The Twenty-fifth Anniversary of the Joint Diocesan Lesson Committee will be celebrated in connection with the Thirty-second Annual Meeting and Teachers' Institute of the Sunday School Association of the Diocese, at this Church, on to-morrow, Monday, January 20th, at 2 o'clock. It will be noted that the Holy Communion will be celebrated at the Church House, at 9 o'clock.

The Thirty-fourth Anniversary of the Parish will be celebrated next Sunday evening, January 26th. Brief abstracts of the Annual Reports of the Church of the Holy Apostles, and the Memorial Chapel of the Holy Communion will be read, and a sermon preached by the Rev. James S. Stone, D. D., Rector of St. James' Church, Chicago, Ill.

The Offerings will be for the Parish Association, and, in accordance with the custom, there will be no service at the Memorial Chapel, but the two Congregations will unite in celebrating this Anniversary. The music will be by the joint Choirs.

St. Matt. 6:25, 26, 28, 29.

Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment. Behold the fowls of the air; for they sow not, neither do they reap. Nor gather into barns, yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Consider the lilies of the field how they grow. They toil not, neither do they spin, and yet I say unto you that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

ANTHEM—"Jesu, Saviour, I am Thine" Bruce Steane

Jesu, Saviour, I am Thine, Thou hast bid me call Thee mine, All things else I count but loss, Find my Glory in the Cross.

Jesu, Saviour, I am Thine, Thou hast bid me call Thee mine, In this only plea confide, That for enemies Thou hast died; Jesu, Saviour, I am Thine.

Come unto Me, ye weary,
And I will give you rest
Oh! blessed voice of Jesus,
Which comes to hearts oppress!
It tells of benediction,
Of pardon, grace, and peace,
Of joy that hath no ending,
Of love that cannot cease.

ANTHEM—"The King of Love." Shelley

Hymn 412.

The King of Love my shepherd is,
Whose goodness faileth never;
I nothing lack if I am His,
And He is mine forever.

Where streams of living waters flow
My ransomed soul He leadeth,
And where the verdant pastures grow,
With food celestial feedeth.

Perverse and foolish oft I strayed,
But yet in love He sought me,
And on His shoulder gently laid,
And home, rejoicing, brought me.

In death's dark vale I fear no ill,
With Thee, dear Lord, beside me;
Thy rod and staff my comfort still
Thy cross before to guide me.

Thou spread'st a table in my sight,
Thy unction grace bestoweth;
And oh, what transport of delight
From Thy pure chalice floweth!

And so through all the length of days,
Thy goodness faileth never;
Good Shepherd, may I sing Thy praise
Within Thy house forever. Amen.

KNEELING HYMN, "Softly now the light of day."

RECESSIONAL HYMN 579.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Treasurer of the Holy Apostles Tower Fund, Mr. Ewing L. Miller, may be seen in the Secretary's Room, immediately after the Sunday School Session.

The Offering this morning will be the annual one for the Women's Missionary Society, which is a Committee of the Parish Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary. This Society will be engaged during the season of Lent in making up boxes to be sent to needy Clergymen. Last year the Congregation contributed $248.61.

This evening the fifth in the course of Sermons before the Parish Chapter, Brotherhood of St. Andrew, will be preached by the Rev. Walter R. Breed, Rector of St. James Church, Lancaster, Pa.

The Rector has begun his instructions to the Confirmation Class, in the Guild Room on Thursday evenings, at 8.00 P.M. All persons, whether decided to present themselves for confirmation or not, will be welcome.

An entertainment and sale of candy, lemonade and cake will be given in the Gymnasium by Class No. 1, to-morrow, Monday evening, February 10th. Tickets, 10 cents. Entrance, 2037 Montrose Street. Proceeds for the Lenten Offering.

A Mardi Gras Entertainment will be given by Class 25, Miss Lucy Dean Wilson, teacher, at 2434 Carpenter Street, Tuesday evening, February 11. Admission, 10 cents. Proceeds for the Lenten Offering.

The Offering next Sunday morning, February 16th, will be the annual one for the Memorial Chapel of the Holy Communion. It is most earnestly hoped that the Congregation will remember those who are laboring in that field, as it is part of our own Parish work. It should also be noted that considerable contributions are made by the people of the Memorial Chapel towards their own support. The offerings last year for this purpose were $521.47.

THE FIRST SUNDAY IN LENT, FEBRUARY 16, 1902.

THE COLLECTS.

O LORD, who for our sake didst fast forty days and forty nights; Give us grace to use such abstinence, that, our flesh being subdued to the Spirit, we may ever obey Thy godly motions in righteousness, and true holiness, to Thy honour and glory, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

The Collect for Ash Wednesday.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who hatest nothing that Thou hast made, and dost forgive the sins of all those who are penitent; Create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that we worthily lamenting our sins, and acknowledging our wretchedness, may obtain of Thee, the God of all mercy, perfect remission and forgiveness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

"I heard the voice of Jesus say."

Hymn 673: 1, 2.

I heard the voice of Jesus say,
Come unto me and rest.
Lay down, thou weary one, lay down
Thy head upon my breast.
I came to Jesus as I was,
Weary and worn and sad.
I found in Him a resting place,
And he has made me glad.

I heard the voice of Jesus say,
Behold I freely give
The living water; thirsty one,
Stoop down and drink, and live.
I came to Jesus, and I drank
Of that life-giving stream;
My thirst was quenched, my soul revived,
And now I live in Him.

KNEELING HYMN, "Abide with me, etc."

RECESSIONAL HYMN 522.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Treasurer of the Holy Apostles Tower Fund, Mr. Ewing L. Miller, may be seen in the Secretary's Room, immediately after the Sunday School Session.

The Offering this morning will be the annual one for the Memorial Chapel of the Holy Communion. It is most earnestly hoped that the Congregation will remember those who are laboring in that field, as it is part of our own Parish work. It should also be noted that considerable contributions are made by the people of the Memorial Chapel towards their own support. The offerings last year for this purpose were $521.47.

The Rector has begun his instructions to the Confirmation Class, in the Guild Room on Thursday evenings, at 8.00 P.M. All persons, whether decided to present themselves for confirmation or not, will be welcome.

The next Special Musical Service will be on next Sunday evening, February 23rd, when the Choir will sing a Church Cantata entitled, "The last night at Bethany," composed by C. Lee Williams. The music is very devotional and suitable for the season of Lent.

Next Sunday morning, February 23rd, there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at 8 o'clock.

On Tuesday evenings during Lent, the Women's Missionary Society will meet to prepare the Lenten Missionary Boxes. The women of the Parish are cordially invited to assist in this work.

All the Offerings of the Sunday School until and including Easter Day will be for the Lenten Offering for the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society.

ANTHEM—"There is a green hill" Charles Gounod
Hymn 544.

There is a green hill far away,
Without a city wall
Where the dear Lord was crucified,
Who died to save us all.

We may not know, we cannot tell,
What pains He had to bear,
But we believe it was for us
He hung and suffered there.

He died that we might be forgiven,
He died to make us good,

That we might go at last to heaven,
Saved by His precious blood.

There was no other good enough
To pay the price of sin,
He only could unlock the gate
Of heaven, and let us in.

O, dearly, dearly has he loved,
And we must love Him too,
And trust in his redeeming blood,
And try His work to do.

Amen.

OFFERINGS FOR THE PARISH.

ANTHEM—"Thou didst leave Thy throne," J. R. Matthews
Hymn 319.

Thou didst leave Thy throne and Thy kingly crown,
When Thou camest to earth for me;
But in Bethlehem's home was there found no room
For Thy holy Nativity.
Oh, come to my heart, Lord Jesus!
There is room in my heart for Thee.

Heaven's arches rang when the angels sang,
Proclaiming Thy royal degree;
But in lowly birth didst Thou come to earth,
And in great humility.
Oh, come to my heart, Lord Jesus!
There is room in my heart for Thee.

The foxes found rest, and the birds had their nest
In the shade of the forest tree;
But Thy couch was the sod, O Thou Son of God,
In the desert of Galilee.
Oh, come to my heart, Lord Jesus!
There is room in my heart for Thee.

Thou camest, O Lord, with the living word,
That should set Thy people free;
But with mocking scorn and with crown of thorn,
They bore Thee to Calvary.
Oh, come to my heart, Lord Jesus!
Thy cross is my only plea.

When the heavens shall ring, and the angels sing
At Thy coming to victory,
Let Thy voice call me home, saying, "Yet there is room,
There is room at My side for thee."
And my heart shall rejoice, Lord Jesus,
When Thou comest and callest for me. Amen.

The Treasurer of the Holy Apostles Tower Fund, Mr. Ewing L. Miller, may be seen in the Secretary's Room, immediately after the Sunday School Session.

Next Sunday morning, March 16th, there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at 9 o'clock.

On Tuesday evenings during Lent, the Women's Missionary Society will meet to prepare the Lenten Missionary Boxes. The women of the Parish are cordially invited to assist in this work.

All the Offerings of the Sunday School until and including Easter Day will be for the Lenten Offering for the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society.

This evening the Rt. Rev. George Worthington, D.D., LL.D., Bishop of Nebraska, will preach and administer the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation, in place of the Bishop of the Diocese. In this connection, special attention is called to the Rubric preceding the Confirmation Office on page 273 of the Prayer Book, as follows:

Upon the day appointed all that are to be then confirmed, being placed and standing in order before the Bishop, sitting in his chair near to the Holy Table, he, or some other Minister appointed by him, may read this Preface following: "The people standing until the Lord's Prayer."

Next Sunday evening the sixth in the course of sermons before the Parish Chapter, Brotherhood of St. Andrew, will be preached by the Rev. William Alexander Barr, Rector of St. Luke's Church, Norfolk, Va.

ANTHEM—"One sweetly solemn thought." R. S. Ambrose
Hymn 676.

One sweetly solemn thought	But lying darkly between,
Comes to me o'er and o'er;	Winding down through the night,
I am nearer my home to-day	Is the deep and unknown stream
Than I have ever been before.	To be crossed ere we reach the light,

Nearer the great white throne	Jesus, perfect my trust,
Nearer the crystal sea.	Strengthen the hand of my faith;
Nearer my father's house,	Let me feel Thee near when I stand
Where the "many mansions" be.	On the edge of the shore of death;

Nearer the bound of life,	Feel Thee near when my feet
Where we lay our burdens down;	Are gliding over the brink;
Nearer leaving the cross,	For it may be I'm nearer home,
Nearer gaining the crown.	Nearer now than I think.

RECESSIONAL HYMN 628.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Treasurer of the Holy Apostles Tower Fund, Mr. Ewing L. Miller, may be seen in the Secretary's Room, immediately after the Sunday School Session.

On Tuesday evenings during Lent, the Women's Missionary Society will meet to prepare the Lenten Missionary Boxes. The women of the Parish are cordially invited to assist in this work.

All the Offerings of the Sunday School until and including Easter Day will be for the Lenten Offering for the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society.

This evening the sixth in the course of sermons before the Parish Chapter, Brotherhood of St. Andrew, will be preached by the Rev. William Alexander Barr, Rector of St. Luke's Church, Norfolk, Va.

On Wednesday evening, the Regular Stated Meeting of the Parish Association will be held. The Chairmen of the various Committees are requested to have their reports ready for presentation. Light refreshments will be served at the close, as at other meetings of the Association.

Next Sunday morning, March 23rd, there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at 8 o'clock.

A Special Service will be held in the Church on Sunday next, March 23rd, at 7.45 P.M., for all those who have been confirmed since the organization of the Parish, in 1868.

"The Crucifixion," the music composed by Sir John Stainer, will be sung at the service on Tuesday evening, in Holy Week, March 25. The Choir will have the assistance of Mr. L. K. Ewing, tenor, and Mr. Henri G. Scott, bass.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A Special Service will be held in the Church this evening at 7.45 P.M., for all those who have been confirmed since the organization of the Parish, in 1868.

Tuesday, 25th, inst., being the Feast of the Annunciation of the blessed Virgin Mary, there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at 8 o'clock in the morning.

The Services during Holy Week will be as follows:

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings at 8 o'clock.

Holy Communion at the Thursday evening Service.

GOOD FRIDAY, March 28th, 10.30 A.M. and 8.00 P.M.

Saturday afternoon, 4.30 P.M., when the sacrament of Infant Baptism will be administered.

The offerings on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings and Saturday afternoon will be for the Parish Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions, and on GOOD FRIDAY evening for the Church of the Crucifixion.

At the Service on Tuesday evening the Choir will sing "The Crucifixion," a meditation on the sacred passion of the Holy Redeemer, by Sir John Stainer. Mr. L. K. Ewing, tenor, and Mr. Henri G. Scott, bass, will assist. This will be preceded by an organ recital by Miss May Porter Mus. Bac., beginning at 7.30 o'clock. A special order of Service will be provided.

On Saturday afternoon, March 29th, at 3.00 o'clock there will be a meeting of the Committee to receive Easter flowers. This Committee will meet again on Monday morning, April 8th, at 11 o'clock, to distribute the same. Teachers who may have sick scholars in their classes, are requested to give the names and addresses to the Committee, in order that the flowers may be sent. Such as are not distributed among our own people will be sent to the hospitals, as in former years.

There will be three celebrations of the Holy Communion next Sunday, EASTER-DAY. The first will be at 7.00 o'clock, the second at 9.00 o'clock, and the third at the 10.30 o'clock Service.

The attention of the Congregation is called to the circular authorized by the Vestry, and which has been sent out to every member of the Congregation asking for an offering on Easter morning, March 30th, that will provide for the deficiency in the current expenses, which amounts yearly to over $2000. The Congregation has responded liberally heretofore to this appeal, and the Vestry trusts that this Easter offering will at least equal that of previous years; at Easter, 1901, it was $2,150.78.

The Rector requests that such members of the Congregation as are sick, and therefore unable to attend the Church on Easter-Day, and who desire to receive their Easter Communion, should send word to the Rev. Wm. S. Neill, and the opportunity will be given privately on Easter Monday or Easter Tuesday.

The Cooper Battalion Hall and Gymnasium will remain closed during the entire week, and there will be no meetings whatever of the Guilds or the Battalion.

ANTHEM—"Palm Branches." Faure

O'er all the way green palms and blossoms gay
Are all strewn this day in festal preparation,
Where Jesus comes to wipe our tears away.

E'en now the throng to welcome Him prepare,
Join all and sing; His name declare,
Let every voice respond with acclamation.

CHORUS—Hosanna, Praise be the Lord!
Bless Him who cometh to bring us salvation.

His word goes forth, and people by its might,
Once more regain freedom from degradation,
Humanity doth give to each his right,
While those in darkness find restored the light,
Join all and sing, etc.

Sing and rejoice, O blest Jerusalem,
Of all thy sons sing the emancipation,
Through boundless love the Christ of Bethlehem,
Brings faith and hope to thee for evermore.
Join all and sing, etc.

Zecharia 9: 19; Malachi 3: 2.

Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Sion:
Behold thy King cometh unto thee,
He is just and having salvation,
Hosanna to the Son of David,
Blessed is He that cometh in the Name of the Lord,
But who may abide the day of his coming?
And who shall stand when he appeareth?
Save, Lord, and hear us,
O King of Heaven, when we call upon Thee.

ANTHEM—"As it began to dawn." Charles Vincent

As it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, to see the sepulchre, where the Lord lay.

The angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and said: Fear not ye, for I know that ye seek Jesus; He is not here, for He is risen. Hallelujah.

Sing unto God, O ye kingdoms of the earth. Hallelujah, Amen. By Thy glorious resurrection, good Lord, deliver us. Hallelujah.

O sing praises unto the Lord. Hallelujah, Amen.

EVENING SERVICE.

Thirty-fifth Anniversary of the Sunday Schools and Bible Classes, 7.45 P.M., for which a Special Order of Service will be provided.

This Service will be preceded by an Organ Recital at 7.30 o'clock.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

This evening, at 7.45 o'clock, the Thirty-fifth Anniversary Exercises of the Sunday Schools and Bible Classes will be held. The Easter Offerings will be presented. The seating arrangement will be under the charge of Messrs. J. Lewis Smith, F. W. Keller, and the Librarians, assisted by the following gentlemen: Messrs. Thomas Mecouch, Jerome B. Jardella, Robert Van Stan, Henderson Synnamon, George Wall, T. B. Kerlin, John Mc Gowan, and Henry Heins.

Under the provisions of the Charter, the Annual Election for twelve Vestrymen to serve for the ensuing year will be held to-morrow, Easter Monday, afternoon, 31st inst., in the Parish Building, between 4.00 and 6.00 o'clock. The following gentlemen have been appointed to act as Judges: Messrs. Wm. H. Funston, Henry Heins, and John T. Knowles.

The Committee to distribute Easter flowers will meet again tomorrow, Monday, morning, at 11 00 o'clock, to distribute the same. Teachers who may have sick scholars in their classes, are requested to give the names and addresses to the Committee, in order that the flowers may be sent. Such as are not distributed among our own people, will be sent to the hospitals, as in former years.

The Rector requests that such members of the Congregation as are sick, and therefore unable to attend the Church on Easter-Day, and who desire to receive their Easter Communion, should send word to the Rev. Wm. S. Neill, and the opportunity will be given privately on Easter Monday or Easter Tuesday.

An Entertainment under the auspices of the Cooper Basket Ball Team, will be given in the new Cooper Battalion Hall and Gymnasium, on Thursday evening, April 3rd. Cards of admission, 15 cents. Part of the proceeds for the Lenten offering.

ANTHEM—"Awake, thou that sleepest." P. A. Schnecker

Awake, thou that sleepest, awake from the dead,

And Christ shall give thee light.

Awake up, my glory, awake, lute and harp!

I myself will awake right early.

This is the day which the Lord hath made,

We will rejoice and be glad in it.

Mercy and truth are met together, righteousness and peace have kissed each other. Truth shall spring out of the earth, and righteousness shall look down from heaven.

Break forth into joy, sing together ye waste places of Jerusalem.

Let the name of the Lord be blessed, from this time forth for evermore. Amen.

ANTHEM—"Hark! hark, my soul!" H. R. Shelley

Hymn 398.

Hark! hark, my soul! Angelic songs are swelling
O'er earth's green fields, and ocean's wave beat shore!
How sweet the truth these blessed strains are telling
Of that new life when sin shall be no more!
Angels of Jesus, angels of light,
Singing to welcome the pilgrims of the night.

Onward we go, for still we hear them singing,
"Come, weary souls, for Jesus bids you come;"
And, through the dark its echoes sweetly ringing,
The music of the Gospel leads us home.

Rest comes at length, though life be long and dreary,
The day must dawn, and darksome night be past:
All journeys end in welcome to the weary,
And heaven, the heart's true home, will come at last.

Angels, sing on! your faithful watches keeping;
Sing us sweet fragments of the songs above;
Till morning's joy shall end the night of weeping,
And life's long shadows break in cloudless love.

ANTHEM—"Christ our Passover." G. W. Marston

I Cor. 5: 7; 15: 20; Rom. 6: 9.

Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us; therefore let us keep the feast.

Not with the old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.—I Cor. 5: 7.

Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over Him.

For in that He died, He died unto sin once; but in that He liveth He liveth unto God.

Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin; but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord.—Rom. 6: 9.

Christ is risen from the dead and become the first-fruits of them that slept.

For since by man came death; by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

For as in Adam all die; even so in Christ shall all be made alive—I Cor. 15: 20.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

COMMUNION ALMS FOR THE POOR OF THE PARISH.

ANTHEM—"Consider the lilies." Topliff

St. Matt. 6: 25, 26, 28 29.

Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment. Behold the fowls of the air; for they sow not, neither do they reap. Nor gather into barns, yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Consider the lilies of the field how they grow. They toil not, neither do they spin, and yet I say unto you that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

OFFERINGS FOR THE PARISH.

ANTHEM—"King of Love." Hymn 412 Shelley

The King of Love my shepherd is,
Whose goodness faileth never;
I nothing lack if I am His,
And He is mine forever.

In death's dark vale I fear no ill,
With Thee, dear Lord, beside me;
Thy rod and staff my comfort still,
Thy cross before to guide me.

Where streams of living waters flow
My ransomed soul He leadeth,
And where the verdant pastures grow,
With food celestial feedeth

Thou spread'st a table in my sight,
Thy unction grace bestoweth;
And oh, what transport of delight
From Thy pure chalice floweth!

Perverse and foolish oft I strayed,
But yet in love He sought me,
And on His shoulder gently laid,
And home, rejoicing, brought me.

And so through all the length of days,
Thy goodness faileth never;
Good Shepherd may I sing Thy praise
Within Thy house forever. Amen.

ANTHEM—"Leave us not, neither forsake us." . . . Sir John Stainer

Leave us not, neither forsake us, O God of our salvation.

In Thy presence is the fulness of joy; leave us not, O God of our salvation.

Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? This same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner, as ye have seen Him go into heaven.

Thou art gone up on high, Hallelujah! and received gifts for men, Hallelujah! Thou hast led captivity captive, Hallelujah!

Hallelujah! yea, even for Thine enemies, that the Lord God might dwell among them.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Next Sunday, May 18th, being Whitsunday, there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at 8.00 A.M. and Morning Prayer and the Holy Communion at 10.30 A.M.

In accordance with the arrangement, the Offering at the regular Service on next Sunday morning, May 18th, will be the annual one towards the expenses of the Sunday Schools and Bible Classes of the Parish, and it is hoped that the Congregation will contribute to this most important matter. While many of the members of the Congregation are also members of the Sunday School, yet there are some who do not attend the latter, and it is not right that the entire expense of conducting the Sunday School should be borne by the officers, teachers and scholars alone. Last year this offering amounted to $143.20.

On next Wednesday evening, after the service, there will be a Special Meeting of the Parish Association. This meeting will be held one week in advance of the stated meeting, for the purpose of receiving the report of the Special Committee on the Annual Fruit and Floral Festival. As the Committee will report in favor of it, making arrangements for holding the same, the time being short, and the need of numerous helpers great, it is desired that all who are interested and expect to help in the matter will be present and hand in their names, as prompt action is necessary.

NOTICES FOR THE WEEK.

Hymn 377.

Come, Holy Spirit, Heavenly Dove,
With all Thy quickening powers;
Kindle a flame of sacred love
In these cold hearts of ours.

In vain we tune our lifeless songs,
In vain we strive to rise,
Hosannas languish on our tongues
And our devotion dies.

See how we grovel here below,
Fond of these earthly toys;
Our souls how heavily they go
To reach eternal joys.

Come, Holy Spirit, Heavenly Dove,
With all Thy quickening powers;
Come, shed abroad a Saviour's love,
And that shall kindle ours.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Rector requests that such members of the Congregation as are sick, and therefore unable to attend the Church and who desire to receive the Holy Communion, should send word to the Rev. Wm. S. Neill, and the opportunity will be given privately on the Monday or Tuesday in Whitsun-week.

The next stated meeting of the Parish Association will be held on Wednesday evening, May 21st, at 8.45 o'clock. The Chairmen of the respective Committees are requested to have their reports ready on that occasion. As the report of the committee appointed to consider the advisability of holding the usual Fruit and Floral Festival has been adopted, arrangements should be made immediately to carry out the recommendations. The need of numerous helpers is great, and it is desired that all who expect to take an interest in the matter will be present and hand in their names, as prompt action is necessary. The Festival will be held on Thursday and Friday evenings, June 5th and 6th. Light refreshments will be served at the close of this as at other meetings of the Association.

An entertainment, under the auspices of the Athletic Association of the Cooper Battalion, will be given in the new hall on Thursday evening, 22nd inst. This will consist of the piece entitled "A Rival by Request," and it will be preceded by a wrestling bout between Messrs. Edward Porter and Edward Williamson. Cards of admission, 25 cents.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The service in the Sunday School incident to Memorial Day, and occurring on the Sunday nearest thereto, will be held on Sunday afternoon, June 1st, when an address will be delivered by Colonel Theodore E. Wiedersheim, Commander of the Veteran Corps, First Regiment, N. G. P. There will be an appropriate order of service prepared as usual, and the School room will be decorated.

Another meeting of the Parish Association will be held next Wednesday evening, in reference to the Fruit and Floral Festival to be held on the evenings of the 5th and 6th of June, and the afternoon of the 6th. As this will be the final meeting for making arrangements, it is expected that all those who have given in their names will be present. While quite a number have volunteered, more will be needed. Donations of cake, candy, lemons, sugar, books and fancy articles are solicited.

The offerings in the Sunday School this afternoon will be for the American Bible Society.

COMMUNION ALMS FOR THE POOR OF THE PARISH.

ANTHEM—"Give glory unto the Lord." Caleb Simper

O praise the Lord, praise Him all ye people.

Give glory to the Lord, declare His praise in the islands.

Surely salvation is nigh them that fear the Lord; that glory may dwell in our land.

Sing aloud unto God our strength, make a joyful noise to the God of our Jacob. Take the psalm, bring hither the timbrel, the pleasant harp, with the psaltery. Hallelujah, Amen

OFFERINGS FOR THE PARISH.

ANTHEM—"Praise ye the Father." Charles Gounod

Praise ye the Father, His power is everlasting.

Praise ye the Father, give thanks for all His benefits.

Sing forth your praises, let every heart be joyful.

Praise ye the Father, Great Ruler, kind and merciful!

Praise be to Him, who has shown His mighty power.

Let every voice sound His praise with exulting strains of gladness!

Great is the Lord, let His name be praised forever; come ye forth with your hearts attuned to sing; arise and praise ye the Father.

Glory to the Father! to the Son and Holy Spirit; glory to the Father who alone hath the power to save. Loudly let the chorus swell! loudly let the tuneful anthem ring.

Love and joy be now in every thankful heart, O praise ye the Lord.

KNEELING HYMN—"Softly now," etc.

RECESSIONAL HYMN, 418.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

This afternoon, at 3.30 o'clock, the usual exercises of the Sunday School appropriate to Memorial Day will be observed. A special order of Service will be printed, the room decorated, and an Address delivered by Colonel Theodore E. Wiedersheim, Commander of the Veteran Corps, First Regiment, N. G. P. The members of the Congregation are cordially invited to be present.

The usual Fruit and Floral Festival will be held in the new Cooper Battalion Hall and Gymnasium on the evenings of Thursday and Friday of this week, June 5th and 6th; also on the afternoon of Friday for the children. Tickets, including refreshments, 25 cents for the evening, and 10 cents for the afternoon. Donations of cake, candy, lemons, sugar, and fancy articles are solicited. It is desired that all will take an interest in this matter to make it a success, as the proceeds will be devoted to the Memorial Chapel of the Holy Communion, Parish Improvement Fund, and the Rectory Fund.

Hymn 8.

The radiant morn hath passed away Lead us, O Christ, when all is gone,

And spent too soon her golden store; Safe home at last.

The shadows of departing day

Creep on once more.

Where saints are clothed in spotless white,

And evening shadows never fall,

Our life is but a fading dawn,

Its glorious noon, how quickly past!

Where Thou, Eternal Light of Light,

Art Lord of all.

KNEELING HYMN—"Lord keep us" etc.

ANTHEM—"Hark! hark, my soul!" H. R. Shelley

Hymn 398.

Hark! hark, my soul! Angelic songs are swelling
O'er earth's green fields, and ocean's wave-beat shore:
How sweet the truth those blessed strains are telling
Of that new life when sin shall be no more!
Angels of Jesus, angels of light,
Singing to welcome the pilgrims of the night.

Onward we go, for still we hear them singing,
"Come, weary souls, for Jesus bids you come;"
And, through the dark its echoes sweetly ringing,
The music of the Gospel leads us home.

Rest comes at length, though life be long and dreary,
The day must dawn, and darksome night be past;
All journeys end in welcome to the weary,
And heaven, the heart's true home, will come at last.

Angels, sing on! your faithful watches keeping;
Sing us sweet fragments of the songs above;
Till morning's joy shall end the night of weeping,
And life's long shadows break in cloudless love.

ANTHEM—"The roseate hues of early dawn." Alonzo Stone, Mus. B.

Hymn 409.

The roseate hues of early dawn,
The brightness of the day,
The crimson of the sunset sky,
How fast they fade away!
Oh, for the pearly gates of heaven!
Oh, for the golden floor!
Oh, for the sun of righteousness
That setteth nevermore!

The highest hopes we cherish here,
How fast they tire and faint!
How many a spot defiles the robe
That wraps an earthly saint!

Oh, for the heart that never sins!
Oh, for a soul washed white!
Oh, for a voice to praise our King,
Ner weary day nor night!

Here faith is ours, and heavenly hope,
And grace to lead us higher!
But there are perfectness and peace,
Beyond our best desire.

Oh, by Thy love and anguish, Lord,
And by Thy life laid down,
Grant that we fall not from Thy grace,
Nor cast away our crown!

KNEELING HYMN—"Softly now" etc.

RECESSIONAL HYMN, 432.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Offerings in the Sunday School this afternoon will be devoted to a special Fresh Air Fund for the scholars of our own Sunday School. This Fund will be distributed under the direction of the Assistant Superintendents, Rev. Wm. S. Neill and Miss Mary A. Warwick, and follows the course adopted the last three years.

Tuesday of this week, June 24th, being the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at 8 o'clock in the morning.

A Supper will be given by Bible Class A, (the Rector's class) at Strawberry Mansion, Fairmount Park, next Saturday, June 28th, between the hours of 5 and 7 o'clock P.M. Tickets, 25 cents. Proceeds for the Lenten offering of the class. Donations of bread, butter, ham, potato salad, cheese, pickles, celery, preserves, canned fruits coffee, cream and sugar are solicited. Strawberry Mansion may be reached by way of the 23d Street (Morris and Tasker) cars, exchanging with Strawberry Mansion cars at 23d and Callowhill streets, or by Strawberry Mansion cars on 18th Street, north of Sansom Street.

Next Sunday, June 29th, being St. Peter's Day and the fifth Sunday in the month, the Holy Communion will be administered at eight o'clock in the morning.

The Assistant to the Accounting Warden will be in attendance in the Administration House, 2038 Christian Street, Monday evening, July 7th, from 7 to 9 o'clock, to receive pew rents due, and to rent any unoccupied pews or sittings.

The monthly meeting of the Sisterhood of St. Mary of Bethany will be held in the Guild Room tomorrow, Monday evening, at eight o'clock. As it has been intimated to the members that there are many women of the Parish who would be glad to join them if their Society were merged into the Daughters of the King, and as this subject has been under consideration for several months, such persons are earnestly urged to attend the meeting of the Sisterhood tomorrow evening, and also on the third Monday evenings in the months of October and November, as the decision must be made in December. As the meetings of the Sisterhood will be identical with those of the Daughters of the King in the event of such a change being made, those who may contemplate uniting should, for this reason, enable themselves to understand the matter thoroughly.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

The Sustentation Fund, for which the offerings will be asked this morning, is to supplement the salaries of inadequately-paid Rectors. An amount is apportioned to the parishes called upon to contribute towards the $3,500 authorized by the Convention to be asked by the Stewards in accordance with the Canon, and is based upon the Episcopal and Convention Fund. The sum asked for from this Church is $66.53. It is hoped that all will respond to the extent of their ability.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Young Women's Guild reopened last Tuesday evening. Its aim is the social and religious improvement of its members, and it is open to all female members of the Sunday School and Church of thirteen years and over. The dues are twenty-five cents yearly for membership, and fifty cents for instruction in any Class. Cards of Application and any further information may be obtained from the Secretary, Miss Annie L. Warwick, at the Guild Rooms on any Tuesday evening from 7.30 to 9.45 o'clock.

To-morrow, Monday evening, October 13th, the Assistant to the Accounting Warden will be in attendance in the Library from 7 to 9 o'clock, P.M., to receive pew rents, and to rent any unoccupied pews or sittings.

The first Sermon before the Parish Chapter, Brotherhood of St. Andrew, will be preached at the Memorial Chapel of the Holy Communion, this evening, by the Rector.

Next Saturday, 18th inst., being St. Luke's Day, there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at 8 o'clock in the morning.

The Offerings next Sunday morning at the 10.30 o'clock Service will be for the Episcopal and Convention Fund. It should be borne in mind that the assessment upon this Church for the Episcopal and Convention Fund is $289.79, as against $183.96 last year. The basis of assessment has been increased from two per cent. of the current expenses to three per cent. of the same on account of the election of a Bishop Coadutor. This amount is intended to cover the expenses of the Diocese, including the salaries of the Bishops, and it is the duty of every one to do what they feel themselves able towards this object. We must not forget that this is an assessment, and there is an obligation upon the Parish to pay the same, as representation in the Diocesan Convention depends upon its being met in accordance with the Canon.

Next Sunday and Monday, October 19th and 20th, being the days of Intercession for Sunday Schools, recommended by the American Church Sunday School Institute, will be observed by a celebration of the Holy Communion at the Church at 9 o'clock in the morning. The officers, teachers and substitutes of the Church and Memorial Chapel are requested to be present.

At 10.30 A.M. the Sermon will be preached by The Right Rev. Thomas U. Dudley, D.D., LL.D., D.C.L., Bishop of Kentucky.

At 3.30 P.M. there will be a Missionary Mass Meeting for Sunday School scholars in which the Teachers and Scholars of several neighboring Sunday Schools, will join. Addresses will be delivered by Bishop Brewer, of Montana, and Bishop Van Buren, of Porto Rico.

At 7.45 P.M. Special Service will be held in the Church and Memorial Chapel. The Rt. Rev. Daniel Sylvester Tuttle, D.D., LL.D., Bishop of Missouri, will preach at the Church.

Hymn 660.

Words by William Cowper—1779.

Oh, for a closer walk with God, I hate the sins that made Thee mourn,
A calm and heavenly frame, And drove Thee from my breast.

A light to shine upon the road The dearest idol I have known,
That leads me to the Lamb! Whate'er that idol be,

t peaceful hours I once enjoy'd, Help me to tear it from Thy throne,
How sweet their memory still! And worship only Thee.

But they have left an aching void, So shail my walk be close with God,
Which the world can never fill. Calm and serene my frame;

Return, O holy Dove, return, So purer light shall mark the road
Sweet messenger of rest; That leads me to the lamb.

I was glad when they said unto me, We will go into the house of the Lord. Our feet shall stand at thy gates, O Jerusalem
O pray for the peace of Jerusalem; they shall prosper that love thee. Peace be within thy walls; and plenteousness within thy palaces.
For my brethren and companions' sake, I will wish thee prosperity.
Yea, because of the house of the Lord our God, I will seek to do thee good.

Glorious things of thee are spoken,
Zion, city of our God;

He Whose word cannot be broken,
Formed thee for his own abode;

On the Rock of Ages founded,
Who can shake thy sure repose?

With salvation's wall surrounded,
Thou mayst smile at all thy foes.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

On Tuesday evenings during Advent the Women of the Parish are requested to meet in the Guild Rooms to prepare an Advent Missionary Box.

The Offerings this afternoon in the Sunday School are for the Penna. Bible Society and the American Bible Society, and on next Sunday, December 16th, for the Endowment Fund of the Church.

An entertainment will be given by Bible Class "V," Mrs. John W. Cobb, teacher at Cooper Battalion Hall and Gymnasium, on Thursday evening. This will consist of a comedy in four acts, entitled "A Night Off." The parts will be taken by a number of the scholars. Proceeds are to go towards the Lenten offering of the Class. Admission, twenty cents.

The Offerings on next Sunday morning, December 14th, are asked for the Endowment Fund of the Church. Last year the Sunday School brought in $81.08, and the Congregation $383.77. As the fund now stands, $35,000 are invested.

The Corporate Communion of the Sisterhood of St. Mary of Bethany will be celebrated at the 9.00 o'clock Service on next Sunday morning, December 21st.

Bac. She will be assisted by Mr. Frederick G. Rees, Bass Soloist of Walnut Street Presbyterian Church.

SECOND SUNDAY IN ADVENT DECEMBER 7, 1902.

THE COLLECTS.

BLESSED Lord, who hast caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning; Grant that we may in such wise hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that by patience and comfort of Thy holy Word, we may embrace, and ever hold fast, the blessed hope of everlasting life, which Thou hast given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

ALMIGHTY God, give us grace that we may cast away the works of darkness, and put upon us the armour of light, now in the time of this mortal life, in which Thy Son Jesus Christ came to visit us in great humility; that in the last day, when He shall come again in His glorious majesty to judge both the quick and the dead, we may rise to the life immortal, through Him who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost, now and ever. Amen.

Zecharia 9: 9; Malachi 3: 2.

Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Sion;
Behold thy King cometh unto thee,
Rejoice, Rejoice, behold thy King cometh unto thee,
He is just and having salvation,
Hosanna to the son of David.
Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord,
But who may abide the day of His coming?
And who shall stand when He appeareth?
Save, Lord, and hear us,
O King of Heaven, when we call upon Thee.

Hymn 11.

Sun of my soul, Thou Savior dear,
It is not night if Thou be near;
O may no earth-born cloud arise
To hide Thee from Thy servant's eyes.

When the soft dews of kindly sleep
My weary eyelids gently steep,
Be my last thought, how sweet to rest
For ever on my Savior's breast.

If some poor wandering child of Thine
Have spurned to-day the voice divine,

Now, Lord, the gracious work begin,
Let him no more lie down in sin.

Watch by the sick; enrich the poor
With blessings from Thy boundless store;
Be every mourner's sleep to-night,
Like infant slumbers, pure and light.

Come near and bless us when we wake,
Ere through the world our way we take,
Till in the ocean of Thy love
We lose ourselves in heaven above.

KNEELING HYMN—"Lord keep us."

THE COLLECTS.

O LORD, raise up, we pray Thee, Thy power, and come among us, and with great might succor us; that whereas, through our sins and wickedness, we are sore let and hindered in running the race that is set before us, Thy bountiful grace and mercy may speedily help and deliver us; through the satisfaction of Thy Son our Lord, to whom, with Thee and the Holy Ghost, be honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

ALMIGHTY and everliving God, Who, for the greater confirmation of the faith, didst suffer Thy holy Apostle Thomas to be doubtful in Thy Son's resurrection; grant us so perfectly, and without all doubt, to believe in Thy Son Jesus Christ, that our faith in Thy sight may never be reprov'd. Hear us, O Lord, through the same Jesus Christ, to Whom, with Thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honor and glory, now and for evermore. Amen.

ANTHEM—"There were Shepherds."

Christmas Anthem for Soprano Solo and Chorus. Composed by Herbert W. Wareing.

There were shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flocks by night. And lo! the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them; and they were sore afraid. And the angel said unto them, Fear not, for behold I bring you good tidings of great joy. For unto you is born this day, in the city of David, a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. And the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem and see this thing which is come to pass.

Thou Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, art not the least among the princes of Judah, for out of thee shall come a governor that shall rule my people Israel. Glory to God. Hosanna in the Highest.

Hark! the herald angels sing
Glory to the new-born king;
Peace on earth and mercy mild,
God and sinners reconciled;

Joyful all ye nations rise,
Join the triumph of the skies;
With the angelic host proclaim,
Christ is born in Bethlehem! Amen.

The radiant morn hath passed away	Lead us, O Christ, when all is gone,
And spent too soon her golden store;	Safe home at last.
The shadows of departing day	Where saints are clothed in spotless white,
Creep on once more.	And evening shadows never fall,
Our life is but a fading dawn,	Where Thou, Eternal Light of Light,
Its glorious noon, how quickly past!	Art Lord of all.

KNEELING HYMN—"Softly now the light" etc.

RECESSIONAL HYMN, 323.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Superintendent, as in previous years, will meet for conference the teachers of the Sunday School with such scholars as may have been thinking upon the subject of Confirmation, this afternoon, immediately after the School Session, in the Guild Room. The teachers and scholars are requested to give this notice their careful attention. The Rector's Confirmation lectures will begin on Thursday evening, February 12th, and continue on February 19th and 26th, and March 5th, 12th and 19th.

This evening, the fourth in the course of Sermons before the Parish Chapter, Brotherhood of St. Andrew, will be preached by the Rector. Topic, "Hezekiah."

On Thursday evening of this week, Classes 27 and 29, Miss Anna Lockhart and Miss Sallie Hussey, teachers, will give a Clipping Party and Bazaar at Cooper Battalion Hall. Tickets, ten cents.

On Saturday evening, at the same place, Classes 6, 28 and 39, Messrs. Alfred M. Dukes and H. Fred'k McIntyre, and Miss Margaret A. Baltz, teachers, will also give an entertainment, entitled "An Amusing and Interesting Evening with the Cinematograph, with Recital and Song." Tickets, twenty cents. Class 1, Miss Anna Jaris, teacher, will give a Tea and Sale of Fancy Articles, on Monday evening, 9th inst., in the Guild Rooms. Tickets, including refreshments, ten cents. The proceeds of these entertainments are for the Lenten Offering.

The Offering next Sunday morning, February 15th, will be the annual one for the Memorial Chapel of the Holy Communion. It is most earnestly hoped that the Congregation will remember those who are laboring in that field, as it is part of our own Parish work. It should also be noted that considerable contributions were made by the people of the Memorial Chapel towards their own support. The offerings for this purpose last year were $533.95.

EVENING SERVICE

Evening Prayer, 7.45 P.M. The Thirty-fifth Anniversary of the Parish. Abstracts from the Reports of the Church, the Memorial Chapel and Chapel of St. Simon the Cyrenian, will be read. The Sermon will be by the Rt. Rev. Charles C. Penick, D.D., sometime Missionary Bishop of Cape Palmas and parts adjacent. Music by the combined choirs of the Church and Chapel, for which a Special Order of Service is provided.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The offerings of the Sunday School, this afternoon, will be towards the ordinary expenses of the School and it is hoped that the response of the teachers and scholars will be liberal. It has always been considered desirable in connection with the work of the Sunday School of the Church of the Holy Apostles that the school should have the privilege of contributing towards its expense. In addition, the officers and teachers who desire the "Church Standard" for next year, are requested to place in the offering such amount as they may feel able to give for this purpose. The annual subscription for this paper is $1.50. The offerings will not be separated, but it is hoped that the total received will cover both these items.

The thirty-fifth Anniversary of the Parish will be celebrated this evening. Brief abstracts of the Annual Reports of the Church of the Holy Apostles, the Memorial Chapel of the Holy Communion and the Chapel of St. Simon the Cyrenian, will be read, and a sermon preached by the Rt. Rev. Chas. C. Penick, D.D., sometime Missionary Bishop of Cape Palmas and parts adjacent. The offerings will be for the Parish Association, and, in accordance with the custom, there will be no service at the Memorial Chapel of the Holy Communion, nor the Chapel of St. Simon the Cyrenian, but the three congregations will unite in celebrating this anniversary, the last named occupying the rear gallery. The music will be by the joint choirs of the Church and Memorial Chapel.

The Superintendent, as in previous years, will meet for conference the teachers of the Sunday School, with such scholars as may have been thinking upon the subject of Confirmation, on Sunday afternoons, February 1st and 8th, immediately after the School Session in the Guild Room. The teachers and scholars are requested to give this notice their careful attention. The Rector's Confirmation lectures will begin on Thursday evening, February 12th, and continue on February 19th and 26th, and March 5th, 12th and 19th.

The annual meeting of the Sisterhood of St. Mary of Bethany will be held tomorrow, Monday evening, January 26th, at eight o'clock.

The South-West Convocation will hold a Missionary Meeting in this Church, tomorrow, Monday evening, 26th inst. The regular order of business will be transacted, following a shortened form of Evening Prayer and Sermon by the Bishop Coadjutor. This congregation is cordially invited to be present.

An entertainment under the auspices of Classes 3 (Miss Matilda Patton), 12 (Mrs. Nathaniel S. Thomas), 13 (Miss Anna M. Bent), 17 and 34 (Mr. and Mrs. Harry U. Hall), will be given next Thursday evening, 29th inst., at Cooper Battalion Hall and Gymnasium. It will consist of a sketch entitled "Tom Cobb," and will be presented by Mr. A. Howard Ritter and friends. Tickets, twenty cents. Proceeds are for the Lenten Offering of the Classes.

The Service on next Sunday evening, February 1st, will be under the auspices of the Church League for work among colored people of the Diocese of Pennsylvania. Addresses will be made by Major Moses Veale, and the Rev. J. Poyntz Tyler, Rector of the Church of the Advent.

Parish Notes

FLOWERS

The flowers on the altar to-day are in memory of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Thomas, the gift of their daughter, Mrs. W. Schuyler Volkmar; also in memory of Mrs. Sue Black, the gift of her mother and sister.

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

The Girls' Friendly Society will hold their annual supper and closing meeting on Friday of this week at six o'clock.

BOYS' SERVICE CLUB AND BOYS' JUNIOR CHOIR CLUB

These two live organizations of boys will hold their closing meetings this week on Thursday and Tuesday evenings respectively. If you are a boy and would like to join either one of these and do a little work and have a good time, see the Deaconess about it; you do not know what you are missing if you do not join.

CHURCH FLAG

Several weeks ago our Rector made an appeal for contributions toward a new American flag. The response was quick and generous. As there was a balance remaining after the purchase of this flag, it was suggested that it be applied toward a fund to purchase a new Church flag. At the meeting of the Women's Service Club it was thought fitting and proper to have our new Church flag in time for the celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of our Rector's ordination to the ministry, June 6, 1926, and the sentiment was to make this "OUR" Church flag and not a Church flag. We felt that every organization would want to be represented in this flag. Give your contribution to the head of your organization. If you are not connected with any organization, you can hand your contribution to any member of the staff.

OUR RECTOR'S ANNIVERSARY PARTY

To-morrow evening will be our opportunity to show our Rector and his family a well-deserved happy time. The party will be informal. Therefore, a cordial invitation is extended to every one, whether a member of the parish, or of the Sunday School, or an interested outsider. We need everybody to make it a happy get-together occasion. There will be entertainment of a varied interesting character and dancing from 9.30 to 11 o'clock. There will be something for each member of our big parish family to enjoy. So we are looking for you to be there.

O God, then will I go unto Thy altar. On the harp we will praise Thee, O Lord our God! And we will praise Thee on the harp, O our God! Why, O soul, art thou sorrowful, and why cast down within me? Still trust the loving-kindness of the God of thy strength. And my tongue yet shall praise Him, and my tongue yet shall praise Him, who hath pleaded my cause. Thou wilt save Thine anointed, Thou wilt hear us from heaven. Though in chariots some put their faith, our trust is in Thee! They are brought down and fallen, but the Lord is our helper: we shall not be afraid. Send out Thy light, O Lord our God.

The Rector's Word

A young man, looking forward to his ministry! How well I remember the emotions of the hour, twenty-five years ago, when the Bishop leaned forward and put over my head the stole, symbol of Christ's yoke. And it has been a yoke, more burdensome and liberty curbing in some respects than I dreamed it could be, but also bringing certain satisfactions and contentments beyond the knowing, save to one who has yielded himself to it.

Twenty-five years has been a long time to serve one Master, but not yet long enough. Were I to stand again where I stood twenty-five years ago, free to choose my life's work, I would do again what I have done, and that knowing much more about the ministry than it was possible for me to know then.

Many changes have come over the face of the world in the twenty-five years, chief of them, of course, that effected by the world war. That changed the church life as much as it did the political life, if not more. We shall never be so smug and narrow and little again, whether in the religious or civil aspects of life, as we were before. Many old barriers were broken down, old limitations wiped out, and old prejudices destroyed.

International and church unity are much nearer than they were before. The present World Court is bound to be merged into a greater world unity of to-morrow, and the various approaches of the churches toward each other are the tentative but real promises of that unity of faith Christ visioned long ago. The real accomplishments of the Church wait the dawning of the day of unity. Others mayhap must take up the torch and carry it to its goal, but it has been something to have helped to carry it even a little of the way along the track of the years.

In the life of the parish the changes have been many, and some of them grievous. Some of the most stalwart of the older type of Vestrymen have gone to their reward, as have some of the most useful and best beloved out of the ranks of the parish workers. Their faces we see no more, but the fragrance of their lives lingers on.

Chief of the material changes in the life of the parish, at least in that part of my twenty-five years spent at Holy Apostles, has been the building and growth of the Chapel of the Mediator. To-day it is one of the strongest units of the Diocese, fully justifying the faith of those who linked its destinies with the life of the parish.

I cannot say too much in praise of the loyalty and self-denying service of the Vestry; nor of our splendid corps of workers in the Sunday School, and other organizations of the parish; nor of the members of the staff, who, for the most part have been true ministers of God in fullest measure. In Yonkers, in Matteawan, and in Philadelphia, I have been so blessed as to have had about me loving friends as fellow-workers, with whom it has been a joy to have fellowship in the household of faith. May God reward and love them all.

And may He, when another twenty-five years shall have rolled around, and whether here or elsewhere, still have a bit of work for us to do for Him, and may its doing bind us still closer each to the other in that love which knows no limitations of time or place. And may we ever increasingly, as the years go on, grow in the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and enter more and more into the peace that passeth knowledge.

DID YOU KNOW?

Class G is selling delicious mayonnaise, homemade marmalade, jellies and jam. You will surely want to place an order for some of each with the teacher of the class, Mrs. Frederick S. Fox, or with any member of the class. Proceeds for the Easter Offering.

NEW SCHOLARS

Will the teacher of each class please give to Mrs. Frederick S. Fox the name of a new scholar at the close of the school's session, if the name is expected to be printed in the next issue of the Parish Intelligence? Such cooperation will be a big help.

THE SIXTH ANNUAL WOMEN'S DINNER

On Tuesday evening, February fourteenth, there will be held in the parish house under the direction of the Women's Service Club the Sixth Annual Women's Dinner.

Plans are maturing easily and pleasantly and the committee is hopeful of having an unusually fine time.

Many have made reservations already and have secured positions of advantage in the seating arrangements. If you are planning to be present, it would be to your advantage to secure your ticket as soon as possible.

The Committee is happy to note that we are highly favored in having the Rt. Rev. Nathaniel S. Thomas as one of the speakers, and that Magistrate V. E. Palmestock has consented to bring us a worth while message.

DATES RESERVED

February 2—Entertainment under the auspices of the Women's Service Club.
February 8—Valentine Dance under the auspices of Class 29.
February 9—Card Party under the auspices of Classes 2 and 16.
February 14—Sixth Annual Women's Dinner.
February 16—Basketball, Hestonville A. A. vs. Class O.
February 21—Father and Son Dinner, Men's Service Club.
February 22—Ash Wednesday.

RUMMAGE SALE, CLASS A

Bible Class A will hold a Rummage Sale at 1802 Federal Street, on Tuesday and Wednesday, January 31st and February 1st. Donations are asked for by this energetic class.

THIRTY-SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

SISTERHOOD OF ST. MARY OF BETHANY

During the year 1927 there were held six meetings of the Sisterhood in the months of January, February, March, May, October and November, with an average attendance of twenty-nine, including visitors, and twenty-seven of members only.

One new member was elected during the year.

The Visiting Committee reported twenty-two visits.

Special appropriations were made during the year, as follows: Easter Offering, $23.50; Church Home for Children, $10; Fresh Air Fund, $4; Total, $37.50

The addresses at the meetings were as follows:

January—Miss Rebecca P. Elliott, "Some Aspects of the Christian Life."

February—Rev. Frank L. Bonyng, St. Matt. 13: 44: "The Kingdom of Heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field, the which when a man hath found he hideth and for joy thereof goeth and selleth all that he hath and buyeth that field."

March—Rev. Dr. Francis M. Taitt, "The Approaches to Life."

May, October and November—The Rector.

May—"Having the Eyes of the Heart Enlightened."

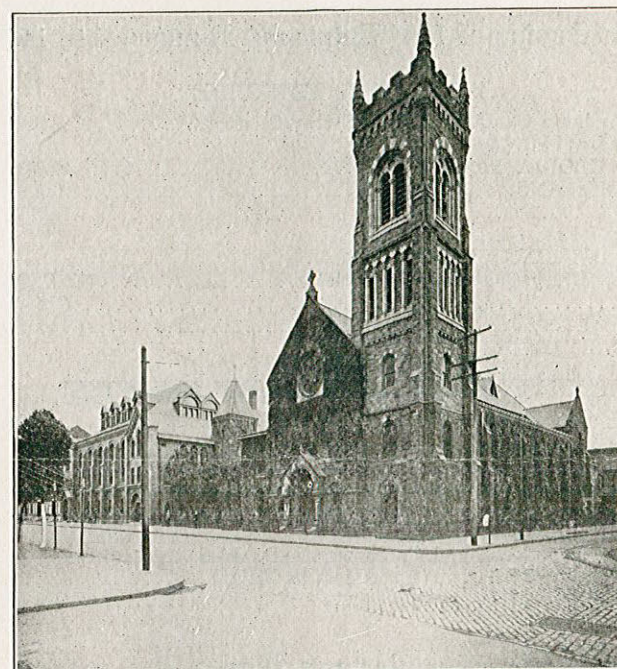

October—"Your Gift," "Neglect not the gift that is in thee."

November—"The Beautiful Things of Life."

Corporate Communion took place on Sunday, April 3rd.

We are very grateful to Mrs. Toop for her continued leadership, to the speakers who have come here to deliver such helpful and inspiring messages, especially to the Rector who has been our speaker at half of the meetings in the year, and who always brings such a worth while message.

THE SIXTIETH ANNIVERSARY

The Church of the Holy Apostles was sixty years old on Thursday last, January 26th. It extends greetings to all its friends today, and especially to those who have travelled with it through all its days—and there are a few of them left. We could wish there were more of them, for they were a stanch and sturdy lot of Churchmen and Christians, those older members of Holy Apostles. I do not believe that it is just because we are looking back at them through the softened light of the years, and so surround them with the light of too appreciative and kindly a courtesy. They were surer and simpler in their faith than are the folk of today. Life itself was steadier and less complex than it is now, and that reflected itself in the religious life. There were fewer questions about faith, less distraction in the outside world, and much less restlessness of the human mind and heart generally than we know today.

If one thinks that perhaps they lacked a little of the breadth and tolerance and good humor in religion that are increasingly ours, one realizes, coincident with the thought, that the difference between them and us in this was due largely to the difference of the times. To that goodly body of younger members, who have come to her in the years that are but of yesterday, Holy Apostles, sixty years old in years, but still young of heart, extends her greetings today. She is still as young as youth itself, and ever will be, because of the buoyancy of heart, radiancy of faith, and confidence of life which well up in her like a never-failing fountain. It isn't a figure of speech this, but simple truth. Some parishes, like some people, are born old and worn and weary, with never a touch of youth to refresh and gladden them. But Holy Apostles was born young (it isn't a truism) and has kept her youth and vital freshness throughout the years.

So the parish, sixty years old today, greets as an equal in the dignity of years those who have journeyed with her through all that time; and the parish, sixty years young today, greets as an equal in freshness of spirit and youth, those of her members who themselves are young. She is one with both old and young because she was young with the old and is young with the young, and, in the wisdom of paradox, is both old and young with both young and old. And there is nothing better to be said of her than this, that she hath today the serenity and wisdom of years allied with the freshness and generousities of youth. And one feels of her that this is to be her character through the years to come, written indelibly in the formative years that are past. Years may multiply upon her, but old age will never be hers so long as her heart is young. It is ours to help to keep her young; her mind receptive to all that is new and true in the tomorrow of her life, just as she was receptive in her yesterday; her face ever turned toward the dawn; and ever in her heart the song of a joyous faith.

FATHERS AND SONS' DINNER

On Shrove Tuesday, February 21st, there will be a fathers and sons' dinner for the men and boys of Holy Apostles. Each man that has a son is asked to bring him to the dinner. If he has more than one, he may bring them all. If he has no son we will provide him with an adopted son for the night. I have asked the Men's Service Club to take charge of the dinner, and the committee appointed for the task is hard at work. We hope to keep the price of the dinner down to 75 cents, so that every one may comfortably come, and bring his son or sons. There is to be fun abounding, so the committee promises, and, I hope, a really deep note will be struck at the dinner, helpful alike to our parish life and to the individuals who attend. It is going to be worth-while, this dinner, I honestly think. Reserve the date, February 21st.

Parish Notes

FLOWERS

The flowers on the altar today are the gift of the Women's Service Club in memory of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Thomas; also the gift of Mrs. Eleanor Neely in memory of her father and mother; also in memory of Miss Catherine Young, the gift of her cousin, Miss Elizabeth Young.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP

The Young People's Fellowship will hold its business and social meeting tomorrow, Monday evening, at eight o'clock, in the Brotherhood Room.

GREYSTOCK KNIGHTS

The Knights meet each week on Tuesdays at 7.30; they have been fortunate in having James Kelly to coach them and hope he will continue to do so. Boys of ten and older are invited.

MOTHERS' MEETING

Thursdays at two,
Come see what we do.
We talk and we sew,
And then, don't you know,
We are looking for you.

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

The G. F. S. older girls repeated their play, "Renting Jimmy," for the "boys" at the U. S. Veterans' Hospital last Wednesday, and helped make an enjoyable evening. They will hold their regular meeting on Friday of this week at eight.

UNITED PARISH EFFORT

On Thursday evening, February 2nd, there will be an entertainment given in the Sunday school room under the auspices of the Women's Service Club. As proceeds of the concert will be used to refurnish the kitchen with a steam table, some needed dishes and other equipment, it is really a parish affair, and one that everyone should be interested in. Tickets may be secured from any officer, captain or member of the Service Club.

Mrs. Elizabeth L. Schreiner, who conducts a splendid school—"The Philadelphia School of Expression and Dramatic Art," has arranged for us to have a funny comedy, "Good Evening, Clarice;" and Mr. William Boyd, of our choir, is arranging an interesting musical program. So please reserve the date and support the cause.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

At a recent Sunday School Council Meeting it was decided that all entertainments, social affairs, or sales of any kind, rummage sales excepted, to secure money for the Easter Offering would have to be given prior to Lent, which commences on Washington's Birthday.

This method has been adopted for the last two years, and the members of the Council heartily agreed with the Rector that our Lent should be one of quiet and earnest spiritual preparation for the great Festival of Easter.

If your class is planning to give an entertainment, etc., please see Rev. Thomas Parker and arrange with him. The list of dates reserved is printed in each Parish Intelligence.

MOTHERS' MEETINGS ON THURSDAYS AT TWO

The members of the Mothers' Meeting extend a cordial invitation to any women who would like to join them in a little sewing, a little talk, a little get-together, on Thursdays from two to four. Much work is accomplished by this group of women for the Episcopal and the Children's Hospitals. Come and see for yourselves.

MEN'S SERVICE CLUB

Twenty-five new members in two weeks—what do you think of that? A "big surprise" is in store for you the latter part of January. Come out to the next meeting, Monday, the 24th, and see what's going on. W. C. KIRK, Secretary.

PENNSYLVANIA BRANCH OF THE

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY TO THE NATIONAL COUNCIL, PHILADELPHIA

MY DEAR MRS. GRAY:—

I wish at this time to ask you to attend our Annual Meeting, Thursday, January 27th. The Educational Day is combined this year with the Annual Meeting of the Auxiliary. The special speaker in the morning, from 10.30 to 12 o'clock, in the Church House, will be Rev. Frederick Goodwin, author of this year's Mission Study text-book, "Beyond the City Limits." As this is a subject of interest to every one, all the members of the Auxiliary are cordially invited to hear Rev. F. Goodwin, whether members of a Mission Study Class or not.

The Annual Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary will be at 2.30 P. M., in Holy Trinity Parish House. After the short reports, Miss Davis, our provincial representative in the Executive Council of the Woman's Auxiliary, will speak to us about the Woman's Auxiliary and the Bishops' Crusade.

We hope for a large attendance at this Annual Meeting, and also at the All Day Missionary Meeting at Holy Trinity Church on February 2nd. Please ask your Auxiliary to come and bring others to these meetings.

Can we not this year, with the Bishops' Crusade, "make a united effort with the whole Church to draw nearer to God, and then go out and draw others nearer to Him through His Church"? Sincerely yours,

GERTRUDE H. WOODWARD, President.

WOMEN'S BENEFICIAL ASSOCIATION

The last meeting of the Association's twenty-ninth year was held Tuesday evening, January 18th. Dues, fifty cents to join and fifty cents for each month. The advantages derived from the Association are so self-evident that it would seem to be unnecessary to argue its claims for support and membership. If the membership be increased, it would greatly enlarge its revenues, so that it would not only meet the benefit claims but even exceed them and pay a fairly good dividend at the end of each year. See Mrs. F. S. Fox, the Secretary, or any member of the Association, for application blanks. R. J. BAUMANN, Secretary.

The Rector's Word

THE PARISH ANNIVERSARY

To-day we celebrate the fifty-ninth anniversary of the birth of the Church of the Holy Apostles. When the Rev. Phillips Brooks, the Rev. Samuel E. Appleton, Mr. John Bohlen and Mr. Charles Gibbons met in the vestry room of the Church of the Holy Trinity on the evening of November 20th, 1867, to discuss the advisability of starting a new church in what was then known as the southwestern part of the city, they had no slightest realization of the great project to which they were setting their hands. When, at a later meeting, on January 7th, 1868, Mr. George C. Thomas was chosen as one of the vestrymen, the guidance of God in the new enterprise is clearly to be seen. For it was this consecrated and devoted layman who, under God, was the greatest power in the upbuilding of this great parish.

To-day, with about four thousand communicant members, a million dollars' worth of real property, and over six hundred thousand dollars in invested funds, it is one of the greatest parishes in the whole American Church. It has grown since that Sunday morning, fifty-nine years ago, January 26th, 1868, when it started in the chapel of Tabor Presbyterian Church with thirty-seven children in the Sunday School. In the evening of that day, Phillips Brooks preached in the same place "to a large congregation." And so the enterprise started, with the greatest layman of his day in charge of the Sunday School, and the greatest preacher the Church has yet produced preaching at its first service. Truly a noteworthy beginning! It sowed then the seeds of its future greatness.

But a great heritage alone is not enough for any living thing. It is not sufficient to have had a worthy past; there is no present vitality in history, only interest and joy. Let us keep alive our interest and hold fast to the joy of our heritage, but let us see steadily and surely that they do but challenge us of to-day as to our worthiness of the gifts which have been showered upon us.

This is our generation, our link in the generations of the life of the parish, and our testing time in the span of the years. God give us to be worthy our heritage, to be strong to meet the challenge of our obligations, and alert for opportunities to "lengthen our cords and strengthen our stakes," for there is yet work to be done, and the harvest still is plenteous.

WELCOME TO DR. TOMKINS

It may be that another rector of Holy Trinity has preached at this anniversary service since that parish birthday sermon of Phillips Brooks, fifty-nine years ago, but if so, I do not know of it. To-night another rector of Holy Trinity, a man greatly beloved in this church and city, preaches the sermon. He is very welcome here, as indeed he should be, for this is the home of Holy Trinity's eldest child.

At your rector's request, the sermon is to be a Bishops' Crusade sermon, as is befitting both time and preacher, for Dr. Tomkins is a member of the National Committee on Evangelism and also Chairman of the Diocesan Committee for the Bishops' Crusade.

WELCOME TO OUR CHAPELS

As we love and cherish each part of the parish as we do ourselves, so do we love to have them with us on occasions in the mother church. It is eminently fitting thus annually to gather together in a service of praise and prayer, and to make account to each other of our mutual stewardship. We shall go to our several tasks stronger and more consecrated for this hour together in God's house, and because of the strengthening of the bond of fellowship and brotherhood which binds us together in a common task.

Welcome home! And God give us all to bear hence a greater measure of His love and peace and joy.

Parish Notes

FLOWERS

The flowers on the altar to-day are in memory of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Thomas, the gift of the Women's Service Club; also the gift of Miss Lillian Wallace, in memory of her mother; also the gift of Mrs. Eleanor Neely in memory of her father and mother.

SISTERHOOD OF ST. MARY OF BETHANY.

The Annual Meeting of the Sisterhood of St. Mary of Bethany, with election of officers, will be held on Monday evening, January 24th. A full attendance is requested, as Miss Rebecca P. Elliott, sister of Director of Public Safety, George Elliott, will be the speaker of the evening.

FIFTH ANNUAL WOMEN'S DINNER

Plans for the usual good time are well under way, and tickets for the dinner to be held on February 16th are in the hands of the officers and captains of the Women's Service Club. If you are planning to participate in the good time, secure your ticket as soon as possible, as the seating arrangements will be similar to those of last year. Arrange your group and secure the tickets—then hand the reservation slip, properly dated, to the captain from whom the tickets are purchased.

GIRLS' FRIENDLY PROBATIONERS

A new group of girls from eleven years of age up will meet for the first time on Friday of this week at 7.45. These are the future members of this Society, and will, we are sure, be in every way a help to the church we all love and a credit to this nation-wide society for girls. Girls, if you are the right age, please consider this a most cordial invitation to come on Friday at 7.45.

Parish Notes

CONFIRMATION CLASS

The Confirmation Class will meet the Rector on Friday evening at 8 o'clock. On Sunday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, the girls will meet the Deaconess in the Rector's Office; while the boys and men will meet with Mr. Parker in the Brotherhood room.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP

Tonight at eight o'clock in the Chantry. Topic, "Study in the History of Religion." You are invited to come and bring a friend.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

Woman's Auxiliary meeting tomorrow, Monday night, at eight o'clock. The President, Mrs. Alfred M. Grey, hopes to have full attendance.

CORPORATE COMMUNION

The Sisterhood of St. Mary of Bethany will have their Annual Lenten Corporate Communion at the 10.30 service this morning.

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

The G. F. S. will hold their regular meeting on Friday of this week at eight o'clock.

GREYSTOCK KNIGHTS AND GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Tuesday is the evening for these two groups to meet, at seven and at eight-fifteen respectively. Be sure to be on hand, girls and boys.

Appreciation

4136 Penngrove Terrace, West Philadelphia, February 22, 1928.

To the Officers and Teachers of the Sunday School of the Church of the Holy Apostles.

DEAR FRIENDS:—May I thank you for the children and myself for the beautiful basket of flowers, also your loving sympathy, which we knew you had for us. Nothing was closer to my dear husband's heart than the dear old Sunday School of the Holy Apostles, and it was his one wish and desire to once again get down to Sunday School and lead the singing before he went "Home."

Affectionately yours,

CAROLINE M. P. BISHOP.

It May Be True

A suggestion to think about, in this remark of a parish priest: "I am frequently faced with the question, 'Why are not young people interested in religion?' And I have found that the young people who are not interested in religion ordinarily take no interest in any other serious matters."

A PRAYER FOR LENT

O God, without Thee we are weak; with Thee, we are strong. Be with us, therefore, during these days of self-denial and prayer. Our standards are low; set before us the standard of Thy Son. Give us to see life eye to eye and heart to heart with Him. Teach us afresh the joy of service and the beauty of self-sacrifice. Make plain before our feet the way of the cross.

Of Thy grace deepen our old and give us new experiences of Thee. Turn Thou our minds toward the desert and teach us its meanings. Give us faith without doubt, and fill full the measure of Thy love for us. Give us part in the pain of the cross, bruise us, crush us, if only so we share at the last in the triumph of the resurrection. We ask it in Christ's name. Amen.

I hereby set forth the following Prayer to be used in the Churches of the Diocese:

Almighty and everlasting God, who by Thy Holy Spirit didst preside in the Council of the blessed Apostles, and hast promised, through Thy Son, Jesus Christ, to be with Thy Church to the end of the world: We beseech Thee to be with the Convention of this Diocese soon to assemble in Thy Name and Presence.

Put far from us all worldly thoughts and aims, and enable us to act as in Thy sight and for Thy glory.

Direct and rule our hearts, that we may choose as Bishop Coadjutor a man approved by Thee, who shall be to the flock of Christ a true shepherd. Bind us all together in unity of spirit and reconsecrate us to Thy service, that with loving devotion we may live for the upbuilding of Thy Church and the extension of Thy Kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THOMAS J. GARLAND, Bishop of Pennsylvania.

The Rector's Word

MR. GEORGE F. BISHOP

On March 28th, 1883, a significant event entered into the life of Mr. George F. Bishop, for on that date he was appointed by the Vestry of the Church of the Holy Apostles as Instructor of the Choir. About two years later he was elected Choirmaster. I say that his coming to Holy Apostles was significant to him because thereafter his life and the life of the parish were very closely intertwined. In fact, his life very largely thereafter centred in his church activities. His service to the parish was not at all a formal service, so much time and labor for so much money. It was a very much more vital and living thing than that, for it was a service instinct and thrilling with personal interest and a deep love.

Until April 9th, 1913, when he resigned, after a tenure of thirty years, he cherished his church work as one can only if it be a work deeply beloved. It was his life, his very life, in its profoundest depths. And after his retirement from active duties, he continued to teach his "boys" in his Sunday school class for ten years or more, until disability prevented his attendance at the sessions of the school.

Who, of all who were present, will forget his spirited and challenging leading of the school in its singing? At times, when he had to hold himself upon his feet by means of a chair or bench, his voice still was strong enough to be raised in praise of the God he loved, and in the singing to touch other hearts with the feeling that to himself was so great and real. A stalwart, handsome man, of fine physical presence, commanding attention instantly, he yet had the heart of a child in his religious life, so simple and sincere was it. Doubts never assailed him, disturbances in the parish never touched him, for he would not share in them, and divided allegiance had no significance to him, for his whole heart was in his own parish life. He was of that older generation which knew God personally and loved Him in sincerity and in truth. Strength and comfort came to me personally every time I went to give him strength and comfort in pastoral ministrations.

Never shall I forget when, our prayers over, I shook hands and said, "God bless you," his hearty and loving, "And God bless you and give you strength for your work." He was broken and spent then in physical life, quietly waiting the call to come and join in the singing of God's praises in the nearer Presence, but I gathered strength from him, weak of body though he was, and went forth better able for my task than before I went in. A really great Christian has gone from us, a true comrade in "The Way."

My deepest sympathy—and I know it is the expression of all your hearts—go to his dear and self-sacrificing wife, his sons and daughter, and to the "boys" of his class, so dearly beloved, and who in turn so loved and cheered him in their thoughtful attention to him during the long years of his illness. May that peace which passeth knowing be his eternally, and may light perpetual shine upon him.

CONFIRMATION

The Bishop of the Diocese comes to us for the service of Confirmation on the morning of March 18th. I give notice of it now so that we all may plan to be present at that time, as we should be when the chief officer of the Church comes to visit our parish for one of the most solemn and holy of all the Church's rites, and when members are to be received into the full privileges of their Church. If any are still considering confirmation for this year, whose names have not yet been enrolled, I shall be glad to appoint times of special instruction for them, so that they may join the class. Kindly let me know so soon as possible if this be the case with any.

THE MEMORIAL SUNDAY SCHOOL EASTER OFFERING

This has grown to be so important, and is so beautiful and appealing a part of our Sunday School Easter offering, that I am bringing it to your notice thus early so that as many of you as wish to share in it may be preparing for it. Any one may be remembered in this way, whether former members of the school or not. If you wish to remember some dear one at Easter in this beautiful way, please send to Mrs. Frederick S. Fox, 2040 Christian Street, for one of the special memorial envelopes in which your memorial offering may be placed and announced with all the rest on Easter Day.

A HAPPY RESUMÉ OF FIFTEEN YEARS

It seemeth altogether fitting that we of this Church of the Holy Apostles should give a reason for the affectionate regard in which we hold our beloved rector. It consists of a great number of things—some of which are briefly mentioned here.

It was under the guidance of Dr. Toop that the Chapel of the Mediator was built.

His was the influence that made the war work of The Ship and Tent Club an outstanding success.

The work which he did as Chaplain at Camp Dix during the suffering of the "Flu" was a heroic contribution to the religious and material needs of our soldiers.

At one period in his rectorship here he made THE PARISH INTELLIGENCE "the best parish paper published in the United States."

His personal efforts have added largely to the Endowment Fund of the Church.

It was his sense of the fitness of things that brought about the repainting and redecorating of our church.

He started The Men's Service Club, The Women's Service Club, The Greystock Building and Loan Association, The Young People's Fellowship and various other successful organizations.

As Superintendent of our Sunday School he has maintained its position of leadership as the largest contributor to the Lenten Offering. The first offering after he came to the parish was $5,734.45, and the offering this year amounted to $6,113.32.

In addition to his care of the "Mother Church," he has spent much time and labor in the interests of the three chapels of this parish, with their communicants numbering 2,876 and the church communicant list of 849, making a total of 3,725 members whose spiritual well-being is constantly in his thoughts.

In the Diocese of Pennsylvania he has labored with conspicuous success as a member of the Executive Council and Chairman of the Bible Class Department of the Joint Diocesan Lesson Board.

For over ten years he has been Dean of the South Philadelphia Convocation of this city.

One of the things dearest to his heart has been the encouragement of young men to enter the ministry. Through his efforts over twenty-five young men have entered on that blessed career, and the Diocese has recognized his interest and labors in this field by making him Chairman of the Commission on Recruiting Young Men for the Ministry.

But transcending all of these things has been his unique success in holding fast to the traditions of the past and in holding together this congregation against the changing conditions of the neighborhood of the church and consequent removal of its members to homes far distant.

Certainly a man who can do this has qualities of heart and mind that warrant our affectionate regard and esteem, and we feel that we are blessed indeed to have been able to keep him with us through these changing years. It is our earnest hope and prayer that he may continue to be a blessing to this parish and to this diocese for many years to come.

God bless him and his dear wife and son!

The Rector's Word

FIFTEEN YEARS AS RECTOR

On May 1st, fifteen years ago, I came to Philadelphia to take up the rectorship of the Church of the Holy Apostles. What teasing, tantalizing, joyous, blessed years they have been on the whole. They have been thwarting years in many ways, and in some ways years of rich fulfillment; years, some of them, which seemed to conquer you, but years, too, there have been wherein you knew that you were the conqueror, and that in spite of adverse appearance, because you had not run away. And the only way to conquer sometimes is not to run away. Well, I have stood by. For fifteen years I have stood by. For a quarter of my working life, I, an eager, natural builder, with creative zeal running like liquid fire in my veins, have simply had to stand and try to stem an adverse flood.

I mention it not to boast, nor to win applause, nor yet commiseration. I am past that stage of petty development. Some years since I quite definitely faced certain factors of my own life, and factors in the life of this parish, and ruled some things out. Since then I have felt better about those things, stronger, and more at peace.

Of some things I can boast, and I boast of them gladly and unashamed. The Gospel preached here for fifteen years has been a Gospel which has made, on the whole, I think, for a happy Christian experience. For fifteen years a great parish has been held together in a kindly, good-humored relationship, with a minimum of dissension and no physical break. For fifteen years there have been comparatively few changes in the staff, and among the other paid workers. That in itself means much. And chiefly it means that your rector has been singularly fortunate in his helpers.

For fifteen years there have been no resignations from the Vestry—deaths, but no resignations. That, too, is a fact of great significance. To the rector it has meant that he has been conscious of a wall of strength behind him, steady and sure.

For fifteen years this great parish has met its every obligation to the community, the diocese, and the whole Church, gladly and made no excuse.

For fifteen years, half a generation, the Sunday School has had taught it from the Superintendent's desk the lesson for the day, direct, frank and religious, not watered down to the level of a Sunday entertainment, nor mere practicalities of business and social life, nor simply pious stories. The lesson has been taught as set forth for that day, and the standard never lowered.

For fifteen years I, as rector, have had (and of this I boast most joyously of all) a loyal people, eager to learn and do the will of God. Where is there another such parish? I honestly do not know of another just like it. If only——! But away with the "ifs only" today. We will have none of them.

Today the sun is shining, and our faces are forward, still forward, and always we will remember:

"The mill will never grind
 With the water that has passed."

The Rector's Christmas Thought

In the infinite mysteries of God a timeless purpose was formed of conferring upon the earth the greatest possible good that heaven could conceive. So in the fulness of time a Child was born, not in the great city of Rome, mighty mistress of the world, nor in the home of the rich and great, but in a little hamlet of a remote province—and into the family of one of the poor and lowly.

But that birth has transformed the world, changed the course of empires, directed the path of civilization, and regenerated millions of human lives. It has brought beauty and honor and goodness increasingly to bear upon the problems of life.

But among the benefits the birth of the Child has conferred upon us there are three that stand high, and these I should like particularly to stress.

For a period each year we are young and we are happy and we are unselfish.

CHILDHOOD REGNANT

At Christmas we forget how old life is, and remember only that there is perpetual childhood in it. It is constantly renewing itself, and this renewing finds resurgent and indomitable expression in the Child of Bethlehem. In His birth we all find new birth, and in His childhood we all renew our own, at least at Christmas time.

HAPPINESS DOMINANT

Merry Christmas! This rings out through the ages as the greeting wherever Christians meet at Christmas time. For a time we are gay and carefree and joyous. Old and young alike, we forget the things that irk and fret us elsewhere and at other times, and yield ourselves to happiness.

UNSELFISHNESS ASCENDANT

Perhaps it is partly because we are young and happy for a time that we are unselfish at Christmas. Perhaps it is in part because we remember how poor the Child of Bethlehem was. Perhaps because He Himself throughout His life was so good to the poor, and taught us so to be.

But wherever caught, the fact remains that at Christmas we do for a time forget to place ourselves at the front of our concern, and remember others. And so it comes about that for a time we are truly Christian, because we are childlike and joyous and thoughtful of others.

Let our prayer be that the Christmas spirit shall more and more grow to be the spirit of all the year.

Once within a lowly stable,
Where the sheep and oxen lay,
There a mother laid her baby
In a manger filled with hay.
Mary was the mother there,
Jesus Christ that baby fair.

God sent us this loving Baby
From His home in heav'n above;
He came down to show all people
How to help and how to love.
This is why the angels bright
Sang for joy that Christmas night.

RECESSIONAL CAROL 78—"O Little Town of Bethlehem"

A Christmas Challenge

Christmas is a time of wonder and worship. The central figure of this feeling and activity is a little baby—the infant Jesus. On the anniversary of His birth we relive His coming. We reproduce the Manger in Bethlehem. We listen to the Angelic music that proclaims His birth. In silent wonder we watch before our Altars even as the shepherds watched in the stillness of the night. We give gifts that symbolize the Perfect Gift. These and other activities engender in us something of the holiness and devotion of that first Christmas.

We want to remember, however, that the infant Jesus grew into the man Jesus. So likewise our Christmas sentiment, centering in the Child, wants to grow into a conviction that produces in us those qualities of which the man Jesus was the perfect example. "God manifested Himself in His Son in order that man might know what man is like and what is a man's relation to God." Our world needs Christmas sentiment more than ever, but it needs a sentiment that is translated into action; a sentiment that looks beyond the manger to a confident realization of the purpose of Jesus in our lives. And our Lord needs that same sentiment to help Him to transform the world's selfishness and sorrow into joy and good tidings for all men.

Adore the infant Jesus. Follow the man Jesus.

Away in a manger, no crib for His bed,
The little Lord Jesus lay down His sweet head.
The stars in the sky, looking down where He lay,
The little Lord Jesus asleep in the hay.

The cattle are lowing, the poor baby wakes,
But little Lord Jesus, no crying He makes.
I love Thee, Lord Jesus, look down from the sky,
And stay by my crib, watching my lullaby.

A joyous and happy Christmas to you all from the Rector and his family!

Once again Christmas dawns upon the world and there sounds in our ears the strains of that song -

"Peace on earth to men of good-will".

It is indeed a troubled world and Christmas lays upon the hearts and consciences of all, that we become apostles of good-will.
It is indeed here that the secret lies of a
"Merry Christmas" and a "Happy New Year".

That old-fashioned but immortal sentiment is our wish and prayer for this Christmas season of 1943 -- for ourselves, for each other, and for all the world.

May God bless us everyone as we "keep
His Feast of Good-will".

RECESSIONAL HYMN—527

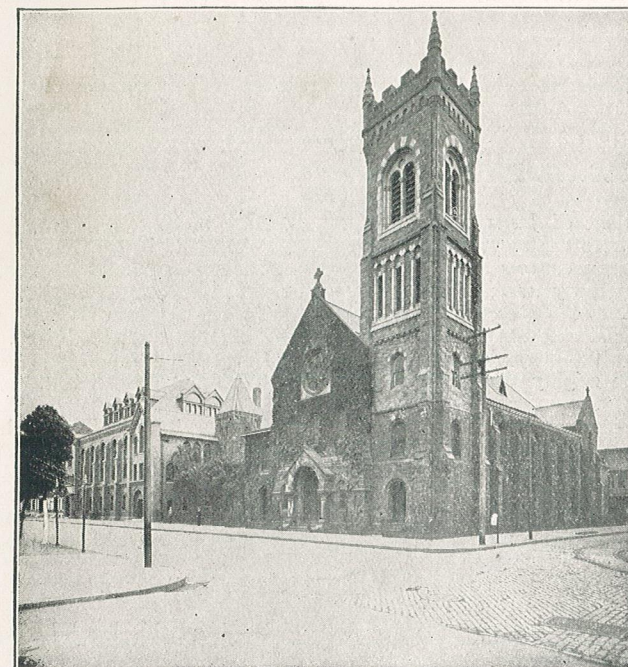

- 1 Saviour, blessed Saviour,
Listen while we sing,
Hearts and voices raising
Praises to our King.
All we have we offer;
All we hope to be,
Body, soul, and spirit,
All we yield to thee.
- 2 Nearer, ever nearer,
Christ, we draw to thee,
Deep in adoration
Bending low the knee:
Thou for our redemption
Cam'st on earth to die:
Thou, that we might follow,
Hast gone up on high.
- 3 Great, and ever greater,
Are thy mercies here;
True and everlasting
Are the glories there,
Where no pain or sorrow,
Toil or care, is known,
Where the angel legions
Circle round thy throne.
- 4 Clearer still, and clearer,
Dawns the light from heaven,
In our sadness bringing
News of sins forgiven;
Life has lost its shadows;
Pure the light within;
Thou hast shed thy radiance
On a world of sin.
- 5 Brighter still, and brighter,
Glow the western sun,
Shedding all its gladness
O'er our work that's done;
Time will soon be over,
Toil and sorrow past,
May we, blessed Saviour,
Find a rest at last!
- 6 Onward, ever onward,
Journeying o'er the road
Worn by saints before us,
Journeying on to God!
Leaving all behind us,
May we hasten on,
Backward never looking
Till the prize is won.
- 7 Bliss, all bliss excelling,
When the ransomed soul,
Earthly toils forgetting,
Finds its promised goal;
Where in joys unheard of Saints with angels sing,
Never weary raising
Praises to their King. Amen.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN—528

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 At the Name of Jesus
Every knee shall bow,
Every tongue confess him
King of glory now;
'Tis the Father's pleasure
We should call him Lord,
Who from the beginning
Was the mighty Word. | 4 Bore it up triumphant,
With its human light,
Through all ranks of creatures,
To the central height:
To the throne of Godhead,
To the Father's breast,
Filled it with the glory
Of that perfect rest. |
| 2 At his voice creation
Sprang at once to sight,
All the angel faces,
All the hosts of light,
Thrones and dominations,
Stars upon their way,
All the heavenly orders,
In their great array. | 5 In your hearts enthrone him;
There let him subdue
All that is not holy,
All that is not true:
Crown him as your Captain
In temptation's hour;
Let his will enfold you
In its light and power. |
| 3 Humbled for a season,
To receive a Name
From the lips of sinners,
Unto whom he came,
Faithfully he bore it
Spotless to the last,
Brought it back victorious,
When from death he passed; | 6 Brothers, this Lord Jesus
Shall return again,
With his Father's glory,
With his angel train;
For all wreaths of empire
Meet upon his brow,
And our hearts confess him
King of Glory now. |

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 My faith looks up to thee,
Thou Lamb of Calvary,
Saviour divine!
Now hear me while I pray;
Take all my guilt away;
O let me from this day
Be wholly thine. | 3 While life's dark maze I tread,
And griefs around me spread,
Be thou my guide;
Bid darkness turn to day;
Wipe sorrow's tears away;
Nor let me ever stray
From thee aside! |
| 2 May thy rich grace impart
Strength to my fainting heart,
My zeal inspire;
As thou hast died for me,
O may my love to thee
Pure, warm, and changeless be,
A living fire. | 4 When ends life's transient dream,
When death's cold, sullen stream
Shall o'er me roll;
Blest Saviour, then in love,
Fear and distrust remove;
O bear me safe above,
A ransomed soul! Amen. |

| 1 Blest be the tie that binds
Our hearts in Jesus' love:
The fellowship of Christian minds
Is like to that above. | 3 We share our mutual woes,
Our mutual burdens bear;
And often for each other flows
The sympathizing tear. |
| 2 Before our Father's throne
We pour united prayers;
Our fears, our hopes, our aims are one;
Our comforts and our cares, | 4 When we at death must part,
Not like the world's, our pain;
But one in Christ, and one in heart,
We part to meet again. |
| 5 From sorrow, toil, and pain,
And sin, we shall be free;
And perfect love and friendship reign
